UK IN LOCKDOWN!

■ Drastic new rules to combat virus spike will remain in place until December 2nd

ENGLAND has entered a new phase of drastic restrictions in a bid to curb a spike in Coronavirus infections.

The new rules, which came into force into Thursday are slated to last until December 2nd, mandate citizens stay at home except for very specific reasons, deemed 'essential activities', which include to buy items at shops which are open, (for instance for food and medicine), or to collect any items - including food or drink - ordered through click-and-collect or as a takeaway, to obtain or deposit money, or to access critical public services.

'rising rapidly'

Britons may also leave home to fulfil legal obligations, or to carry out activities related to buying, selling, letting or renting a property, as well as leaving for education (formal education, 'rather than extracurricular classes'), training, registered childcare and children's activities that are necessary to allow parents/carers to work, seek work, or undertake education or training. Parents can still take their children to school, and people can continue existing arrangements for contact between parents and children where they live apart.

The measures are underpinned by law and with police and other authorities given powers to give fines and break up gatherings.

Introducing the new regulations, a government statement said: "COVID-19 case numbers are rising rapidly across the whole of the UK and in other countries. We must act now to control the spread of the virus. The single most important action we can all take to fight coronavirus is to stay at home, to protect the NHS and save lives.

"When we reduce our day-to-day contact with other people, we reduce the spread of the infection."

There is separate guidance for households with a possible or confirmed coronavirus infection: specifically people may only leave their homes for work, or to provide voluntary or charitable services, which cannot be done from home. People may leave home to visit people in their 'support bubble', or to provide informal childcare for children 13 and under as part of a childcare bubble, to provide care for vulnerable people, to provide emergency assistance, attend a support group (of up to 15 people), or receive respite care. People can also exercise outdoors or visit an outdoor public place.

Exceptions

Exceptions will also be made for any medical reason, including to get a COVID-19 test, appointments and emergencies, to visit someone who is giving birth or dying, to avoid or escape risk of injury or harm (such as domestic abuse), to visit someone in a care home (if permitted under care home guidance), hospice, hospital, to accompany them to a medical appointment, or to go to the vets (or other animal welfare services).

Meeting with other people is strongly discouraged by the new guidelines, with the only permissible exceptions being exercise in an outdoors space with people from the same household or support bubble, or with one other person. A support bubble is where a household with one adult joins with another household. Households in that support bubble can still visit each other, stay overnight in each other's households, and visit outdoor public places together.

Retail

Face coverings are required by law to be worn in many indoor settings, such as shops or places of worship where these remain open, and on public transport.

To reduce social contact, the Government has ordered certain businesses and venues to close or restrict how they provide goods and services. These include: non-essential retail, such as clothing and homeware stores, vehicle showrooms (other than for rental), betting shops, tailors, tobacco and vape shops, electronic goods and mobile phone shops, and market stalls selling non-essential goods. These venues can continue to be able to operate click-and-collect (where goods are pre-ordered and collected off the premises) and delivery services. Hospitality venues such as cafes, restaurants, pubs, bars and social clubs must also close; with the exception of those providing food and drink for takeaway (before 10pm; and not including alcohol), click-and-collect, drive-through or delivery. Accommodation such as hotels, hostels, guest houses and campsites. Except for specific circumstances, such as where these act as someone's main residence, where they cannot return home, for homeless people, or where it is essential to stay there for work purposes.

Leisure and sports facilities (such as leisure centres and gyms, swimming pools, tennis and basketball courts, golf courses, fitness and dance studios and climbing walls) will also be shut, as will other entertainment venues such as theatres, concert halls, cinemas, museums and galleries, casinos, amusement arcades, bingo halls, bowling alleys and skating rinks.

GPs on standby for Covid vaccine

...and Christmas 'could be saved' if lockdown works

FAMILY doctors are being told to prepare for a Covid-19 vaccine roll-out early next month.

And in further good news Chief Medical Officer Professor Chris Whitty, left, raised hopes of families being able to spend Christmas together.

GP surgeries will be put on standby to start delivering a jab to over-85s and frontline health workers, according to GP magazine Pulse. It said two vaccines were being prepared including one that requires two shots with one that must be stored at "minus 70 degrees".

Candidates from Oxford University/Astrazeneca and BioNtech/Pfizer are thought to be the frontrunners.

Both vaccines fit the bill and are currently in the final phase of trials.

Pulse said GPs will soon be sent details of how they should deliver the service above their usual contract.

The Royal College of GPs said it was not aware of conversations happening with practices yet, but would welcome involvement in a Covid vaccination programme.

Previous reports have suggested major cities, including London, Leeds and Hull, could set up vaccination centres to allow thousands of people to be inoculated every day.

manageable levels

Trainee nurses, physiotherapists and paramedics may be deployed to help deliver the programme. However, a widespread rollout of vaccines is not expected to begin until next spring with the elderly first in line for it.

The news comes after the country's Chief Medical Officer raised hopes that families will be able to spend Christmas together.

Professor Whitty said it is "realistic possibility" that the month-long shutdown will achieve its aim and drive down Covid-19 infection rates to manageable levels.

Once the countrywide restrictions, which started on Friday, come to an end on December 2, England could then go into a new regional tiering system.

Experts are currently working on a special system that would help people "maximise" the opportunity for celebrations without increasing transmission of the disease, he said.

With the UK's daily coronavirus death total hitting 257 on Thursday, Professor Whitty told MPs that Boris Johnson's new national lockdown would produce the desired results on time.

'long haul'

"If people adhere in the way that I expect they will, it'll reduce R below 1, in my view, in the great majority or all of the country," he told the House of Commons Science and Technology Committee.

"I wouldn't want to imply that suddenly that means that Covid is over as a problem. "This is a long haul."

He said it was "a realistic possibility" the restrictions would be lifted on December 2, but the decision "is rightly one for ministers and Parliament".

On the new tiering system for December, he said: "We'll have to work out ways we can advise people in a way that maximises their ability to keep with the essence of what is the festivity but minimises the risk of transmission and we are trying to work that through at the moment," he said.

"But how risky that will be, how far that road we can go down, will very much depend on the epidemiology," Professor Whitty and the government's chief scientific adviser Sir Patrick Vallance, also admitted the localised, three-tier lockdown approach – only introduced on October 14 – was starting to drive down the R rate and slow the spread of infections, particularly in northern hotspots which had been subjected to Tier 3 restrictions.

But he claimed the measures were not working fast enough to counteract a mid-September surge in infections which has triggered a wave of hospitalisations that modellers believe will breach national hospital capacity by November 20.

He said: "It is difficult to be absolutely confident about how far their effect [the tiered system] has gone.

"I am confident Tier

Two has had an effect and that Tier Three has had a bigger effect... But the early indications we have at the present is that this has not achieved getting the R below one.

"It has brought it much closer to one but it is still doubling over a longer period of time."

New data from the Covid Symptom Study app, which is run by King's College London (KCL), suggests there has been a slight drop in new Covid-19 infections across England, Wales and Scotland.

Brexit talks hit wall as EU 'ignores UK's sovereignty'

BREXIT trade talks broke up this week without an agreement – despite two weeks of intensified negotiations.

The EU is still failing to deal with Britain as an independent state, officials on the UK side claimed.

Clashes continued over EU demands on fishing rights and state aid rules that the Government has made clear it will not agree to.

British negotiator Lord Frost and his Brussels counterpart Michel Barnier said there were still major differences remaining. But they will resume discussions in London on Sunday.

The two sides have just weeks to find a solution that can be signed off in time for the end of the transition period on December 31.

Lord Frost said: "We've just finished two weeks of intensive talks with the EU.

"Progress made, but I agree with Michel Barnier that wide divergences remain on some core issues. We will continue to work to find solutions that fully respect UK sovereignty." Negotiating teams will now remain in touch via video calls over the next few days.

Brussels officials believe a Joe Biden US presidency will give it the advantage in the last stages of the talks as the Democrat has said he will prioritise the EU. Mr Barnier told European leaders that "considerable progress" had been made putting pen to paper on the legal text.

But he conceded they had failed to make a breakthrough on the key sticking points of access to British fishing waters, future common standards and policing the final agreement.

Also affected will be personal care facilities such as hair, beauty, tanning and nail salons. Tattoo parlours, spas, massage parlours, body and skin piercing services must also close. It is also prohibited to provide these services in other peoples' homes.

Other businesses are permitted to stay open, following COVID-19 Secure guidelines. This includes those providing essential goods or services, including: essential retail such as food shops, supermarkets, pharmacies, garden centres, hardware stores, building merchants and off-licences. Also exempted are petrol Stations, car repair and MOT services, bicycle shops, and taxi and vehicle hire businesses.

Going to work

To help contain the virus, everyone who can work effectively from home must do so. Where people cannot do so - including, but not limited to, people who work in critical national infrastructure, construction, or manufacturing - they should continue to travel to their workplace. This is essential to keeping the country operating and supporting sectors and employers.

Education

Schools, colleges and universities remain open. The Government said it 'will continue to prioritise the wellbeing and long-term futures of our young people and will not be closing core educational facilities, like early years settings, schools, colleges, universities and vocational training centres. It remains very important for children and young people to attend, to support their wellbeing and education and help working parents and guardians.'

No alternative to new lockdown, says Boris

■ 28-day time limit will provide Christmas boost, insists Prime Minister

BORIS Johnson has vowed the new Covid lockdown will end on December 2 to give millions of families a Christmas boost.

Downing Street sources said the Prime Minister will stick to the 28-day time limit on national restrictions before reverting to regional measures.

No10 was quick to make the pledge after Minister for the Cabinet Office Michael Gove said the month-long shutdown could be extended if the coronavirus is still spreading too quickly.

A source said: "These measures are time limited and will end on December 2."

Mr Johnson believes the action will allow families to be together at Christmas.

The PM had reportedly held a lockdown crisis meeting on Friday with just three other Cabinet ministers - Mr Gove, Chancellor Rishi Sunak and Health Secretary Matt Hancock - before the final decision was announced on Saturday evening.

'strong local action'

Mr Johnson said he had "no alternative" but to introduce the measures after being warned by scientists the death toll could be more than twice that of the first wave.

He told reporters: "Models of our scientists suggest that unless we act now we could see deaths over the winter that are twice as bad or more compared with the first wave."

"Faced with these latest figures, there is no alternative but to take further action at a national level."

"I know some in the

Backed into a corner? Johnson held a crisis lockdown meeting ahead of the decision

House believe we should have reached this decision earlier, but I believe it was right to try every possible option to get this virus under control at a local level, with strong local action and strong local leadership.

"At the end of four weeks, on Wednesday, December 2, we will seek to ease restrictions, going back into the tiered system on a local and regional basis according to the latest data and trends."

'in despair'

Mr Gove had suggested the national lockdown could be extended if the disease is continuing to spread too quickly.

He said: "We want to be in a position where we can - and I believe that this is likely to be the case - have an approach where if we bring down the rate of infection sufficiently we can reduce measures nationally and also reduce measures regionally."

Polling showed the public overwhelmingly back Mr Johnson's decision.

A YouGov survey of more than 2,200 English adults found 72 per cent were in favour of the lockdown.

But there was less unanimity within his own party, with former Tory minister Sir Desmond Swayne saying the lockdown was "madness" and that he was "in despair" about the move because of the consequences it will have for jobs, businesses and people's health.

He said: "We will be paying for this for years in terms of reduced investment elsewhere. It is costing an arm and a leg.

"I don't believe the consequences of avoiding this action are as great as the dangers of embracing it."

Tory former party leader Sir Iain Duncan Smith said the lockdown was a "deadly mistake". Sir Graham Brady, chairman of the powerful 1922 committee of backbenchers, said he will oppose the Government plans.

He said he fears a "repetitive cycle of lockdowns" that simply defer the spread of the virus.

He added: "The aspect of lockdown restrictions that bothers me most is the extent of the intrusion into what ordinarily we see as fundamental human rights. The freedom of association, the right to a family life."

World Cup hero Nobby Stiles dead at 78

World Cup-winning England midfielder Nobby Stiles has died aged 78 after a long illness.

The former Manchester United player had prostate cancer and advanced dementia.

Stiles is the seventh member of the England team that started the 1966 World Cup final against West Germany to die, after captain Bobby Moore, Alan Ball, Ray Wilson, Gordon Banks, Martin Peters and Jack Charlton.

Manchester-born Stiles was made an MBE in 2000.

A statement issued by his family said: "The Stiles family are sad to announce that Nobby Stiles passed away peacefully today surrounded by his family after a long illness."

"The family kindly ask for privacy at this sad time."

Stiles won 28 caps for England and played a key role in neutralising Portugal star Eusebio in the 1966 semi-final, before another fine showing in the dramatic 4-2 extra-time win over West Germany.

"Hugely sad to hear Nobby has passed away," said Sir Geoff Hurst, who scored a hat-trick in the final.

"Great character, and the heart and soul of the team, he will be sorely missed."

At club level, Stiles won two English league titles and the 1968 European Cup during an 11-year career with Manchester United.

He made almost 400 appearances for the Red Devils between 1960 and 1971, going on to play for Middlesbrough and Preston North End before retiring in 1975.

Stargazing with Annie Shaw

ARIES: Your boss Aries is preparing to speed up in your own sign. Stay patient and do not allow yourself to get carried away or be impulsive. Be careful with your cash flow.

TAURUS: This is a time for you to sort out your mindspace as well as the physical space you are currently living in. Although you may be ready to move forward, it's just not this week ahead.

GEMINI: Your boss Mercury moving forward now at a snail's pace can be a tad frustrating. There's nothing much you really can change for a couple of weeks. Just lay low and stay relaxed.

CANCER: You water signs are feeling this time frame more deeply than most people. Uncertainty is all around so just relax and do something you are certain you can complete. Next week is better.

LEO: Don't forget to breathe and relax, it's the best way to get through these uncertain times. You are innovative at the best of times so let this be a time you get your thoughts aligned and focused.

VIRGO: Worry is no stranger in your life. It is actually a normal part of your life. Time will go by whether you stress or not. Reach out to someone who needs your wisdom. Your boss is in a better place now.

LIBRA: Your boss Venus is getting ready to move into your money area just as Mercury leaves. While it is a time of uncertainty it need not be a time for instability. So expect improvement in financial areas soon.

SCORPIO: This time can feel especially uncertain for you, especially if you over-think things. You are ok with your own company usually, so keep a positive attitude and be at peace in this time frame.

SAGITTARIUS: You can take life in your stride currently and remain in good spirits. This is one of your positive traits and helps you move forward. It's currently a time to feel good, no matter what.

CAPRICORN: You are about to get busier! Whatever the situation is make time to relax and be aware of your thoughts, which often affect your actions.

AQUARIUS: While the current times are uncertain, knowing you can help other people can help you to get through this time. You should also benefit by working on healthy habits for yourself.

PISCES: While your boss Neptune is living with you it is a time when you are more likely to procrastinate. While life has not been ideal of late, keep the faith. Mars in your money area will cheer you up.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF: SANDRA R. CANALIS CASE NO. 20STPB08933

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of SANDRA R. CANALIS.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by KIMBERLY MCLAURY in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES. THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that KIMBERLY MCLAURY be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. THE PETITION requests the decedent's WILL and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The WILL and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 12/01/20 at 8:30AM in Dept. 79 located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (844)477-7869 or visit this Internet Web site www.stoxposting.com, using the file number assigned to this case 2020-00112. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. England recall for Foden

Manchester City midfielder Phil Foden has been recalled by England for November's matches against the Republic of Ireland, Belgium and Iceland.

There is no place for Mason Greenwood, and midfielder Calvin Phillips miss out with injuries.

Reece James, who was sent off against Denmark, is included again. The Chelsea defender will only be available for the friendly against the Republic of Ireland on Thursday, 12 November before serving a two-game suspension.

Manchester United captain Harry Maguire will be unavailable for the Nations League away game against Belgium on 15 November after also being dismissed against the Danes.

Elsewhere, Foden's club-mate Raheem Sterling is also given an expected recall after missing the last set of international fixtures with a minor hamstring injury.

There is also no place in the 29-man squad for Leicester winger Harvey Barnes, who made his Three Lions debut as a 76th-minute substitute in October's 3-0 win over Wales.

England host Iceland in the Nations League on 18 November.

Foden, who made his senior England debut in Iceland, has started the season in fine form for City.

With three goals in 11 appearances across all competitions, he has become increasingly influential for his club.

Referring to both the recall of Foden and Greenwood's omission, England manager Southgate said: "They don't come as a pair, they are individual players with their own strengths and individual talents.

"We are looking at the balance of the squad positionally firstly. Phil has had a lot of football with his club most recently and Mason has had less game time with Manchester United."

Kane joins 200 club

Harry Kane marked his 300th appearance for Tottenham with his 200th goal as Jose Mourinho's side dominated a Europa League mismatch with a 3-1 win against Ludogorets in Bulgaria on Thursday.

Kane, 27, long-since cemented his place in the Spurs history books but few could have predicted his prodigious goalscoring rate when he came into the first team seven years ago.

Only 1960s legends Jimmy Greaves and Bobby Smith stand ahead of him in the club's records and if he stays fit - and at the club - the England captain looks set to break record after record.

He could, and should, have already scored twice when he headed in a Lucas Moura corner to put Mourinho's side ahead against Ludogorets.

Kane then set up Moura for Spurs' second before being replaced at the interval as the Premier League side utterly dominated the multiple Bulgarian champions.

Mourinho was furious last week with his side's insipid display in Antwerp and was rewarded with a controlled, ruthless first-half performance, but the hosts were able to reply early in the second half through Claudiu Keseru.

That was an anomaly though, as Giovanni Lo Celso's tap-in secured a routine victory that puts Spurs back in contention in Group J.

• ARSENAL BOSS Mikel Arteta called for the introduction of the video assistant referee in Europa League group games despite Arsenal running out comfortable 4-1 winners against Molde on Thursday night.

HARRY KANE: scored his 34th headed goal for Spurs Thursday night

The Gunners reached the halfway point of Group B with a 100% winning record courtesy of a solid victory.

But it could have been more as Eddie Nketiah had what looked like a legal goal ruled out for offside after Nicolas Pepe's pass, with Molde leading 1-0.

Unlike the Champions League, VAR is not being used in the group stages of the Europa League.

"I don't think it makes any sense when we have the technology and we all believe it is the right call for everybody to do it," said Arteta.

"So I don't understand, we were complaining with the referee because we were told he was clearly onside and obviously it's a situation that can clearly change the game."

Lennon laments 'lack of hunger' after 'unacceptable' home loss

Celtic's "lack of hunger and application" was "unacceptable" in Thursday's 4-1 home defeat by Sparta Prague, manager Neil Lennon has said.

Lennon (above) admitted his side's hopes of qualifying from Europa League Group H have "probably" been ended.

And he vowed to change the "culture" among his players and that it could be achieved "very quickly".

"This is definitely a turning point - it won't happen again, that's for sure," Lennon said.

"We can't accept that and the players know that as well. I can't defend the players. I've tried to over the piece, but I can't defend them tonight."

It was the first time Celtic have lost three consecutive home games in 30 years - and the first time they have lost three consecutive home Europa League matches.

They now sit bottom of Group H, two points behind Sparta and six adrift of leaders Lille, who stunned AC Milan 3-0 in Italy.

Asked if he agreed it was an embarrassing defeat, Lennon said: "Yes, of course.

"Lack of application, lack of hunger and that's not us, so there has to be a culture change and I've got to change it quickly and the players need to change quickly as well because that's totally unacceptable for a club of our standing.

"It is an accumulation of things. We need to get back to showing a bit more humility and start working harder on the training ground."
