A BIG FAT ZERO!

UK records no Covid deaths for first time since pandemic began

NOT one Covid death was recorded in Britain on Tuesday – the first zero daily toll since the crisis began in March last year.

The pandemic landmark has renewed hopes that all restrictions will still be lifted on Freedom Day, June 21.

Health Secretary Matt Hancock said: "The whole country will be so glad there were no Covid-related deaths recorded. The vaccines are clearly working – protecting you, those around you.

"Despite this undoubtedly good news, we know we haven't beaten this virus yet and with cases continuing to rise please remember "hands, face, space" and let in fresh air when indoors."

There was a rise in Covid cases to 3,165 – up 27 per cent from 2,493 on the previous Monday – which is causing concern in Government circles and among health officials.

Some scientists continued to urge against a full reopening of society but latest research shows Covid levels were highest among children, who are highly unlikely to become seriously ill. Rates among the over- 60s were very low.

Chris Hopson, chief executive of trusts organisation NHS Providers, said the zero death figure showed the country is turning the tide.

He said: "If we think back to last year, our entire landscape was different.

"We did not yet have a vaccine to administer, our scientific knowledge on the virus was limited and trusts were quickly innovating and adapting to keep up."

Dr Yvonne Doyle, medical director of Public Health England, said it was "encouraging" to see deaths staying low. But she added that cases were rising and there were still people who had not had either one or both vaccine doses.

Zero deaths within 28 days of a positive Covid-19 test were in fact reported last July 30. But that came before the definition used for counting deaths was later changed, in August.

By the previous method, which did not use the 28-day cut-off, 38 deaths were announced at the time.

Daily death tolls are usually lower at weekends and at the start of each week.

King's College London's Dr Nathalie MacDermott, National Institute for Health Research academic clinical lecturer, said: "While zero daily Covid-19 related deaths for the first time since March 2020 is certainly something to be celebrated, we must remember that this follows a three-day bank holiday weekend during which time deaths may not have been formally reported or recorded.

reduction

"However, what is apparent is the marked reduction in daily deaths from Covid-19 over the last couple of months."

She said the fall was "representative of the significant reduction in daily case numbers of infections over the last five months and the impact of the vaccination programme providing a level of protection to older and more vulnerable individuals".

Boris Johnson believes there is nothing in the data to suggest there needs to be a delay to the June 21 removal of the remaining lockdown restrictions, No 10 officials indicated.

The Government wants to "double jab" everyone over 50 or in a vulnerable group by the reopening date.

The Prime Minister will continue to look at the data before giving a decision on June 14.

Robert Dingwall, professor of sociology at Nottingham Trent University, urged the Government to stick to the freedom timetable.

He said there was no evidence to justify a delay and added that keeping restrictions is harming society.

He continued: "We need to recognise the way in which levels of fear and anxiety in the population have been amplified over the last 15 months or so. We've got to look at the collateral damage in terms of untreated cancers, untreated heart conditions, all of the other things that people suffer from.

vulnerable

"We've got to think about the impact of economic damage that would be caused by further periods of delay." Prof Dingwall said the UK must learn to live with the virus and claimed "critics" who want to put back Freedom Day "can't even agree on what delay they'd like".

Tory MPs urged the Government to stick to the roadmap, insisting "we need to open up". Ex-Cabinet minister Iain Duncan Smith said: "It appears the evidence shows, as we've seen today with zero deaths, that actually these vaccines are proving to be a very strong protection. So we need to stay with that [June 21 date]."

Some scientists warned against opening up fully this month.

Prof Adam Finn, of the Joint Committee on Vaccination and Immunisation, claimed there are still many people vulnerable to the effects of Covid. He warned: "The idea that somehow the job is done is wrong."

Sunny Outlook! Jobs boost economy

■ UK set for massive post-Covid economic boom
 ■ GDP growth set to beat all over major economies

BRITAIN'S "more jobs, more jobs" bounceback from Covid-19 is paying off with a record recovery.

Economists now expect the UK to beat all major rich nations this year, with 7.2 per cent growth.

The massive injection of confidence following the vaccine rollout is predicted to restore national income to pre-pandemic levels by next spring.

Chancellor Rishi Sunak welcomed the upgraded forecast and said: "Our plan for jobs is working. It's great to see some early signs that the UK is bouncing back from the pandemic but with debt at nearly 100 per cent of [Gross Domestic Product] we must also ensure public finances remain on a sure footing.

"That's why at the Budget in March I set out steps we will take to bring debt under control over the medium term; ensuring our future recovery is sustainable."

The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) said that countries which have been quick to vaccinate against coronavirus are witnessing their economies recover more quickly than other nations.

Officials at the OECD increased its outlook for the UK economy in its latest global analysis.

It now forecasts a healthy GDP growth of 7.2 per cent this year, which is up from the 5.1 per cent predicted last December.

The forecast also sees Britain's economy growing by 5.5 per cent next year – again an increase, from 4.7 per cent.

'ongoing success'

Mr Sunak said analysis shows there are early signs the UK is well on the road to recovery.

He said: "The strength of the UK's growth forecast is testament to the ongoing success of our vaccine rollout and evidence that our plan for jobs is working."

Britain's expected recovery this year will be ahead of the United States' anticipated growth of 6.9 per cent and is topped only by India and China.

The euro bloc lags on 4.3 per cent, including Germany on 3.3 per cent while France's economy is predicted to experience a 5.8 per cent improvement.

The OECD predicted: "Prospects for the world economy have brightened but the recovery is likely to remain uneven and, crucially, dependent on the effectiveness of public health measures and policy support."

The UK upturn is being driven by consumption and is built on the successful vaccination programme, according to the organisation's report.

The gradual lifting of lockdown rules is allowing a "solid rebound" while service sectors are "bracing for take-off", it added.

"Consumption will bounce back sharply as hard-hit hospitality services and retail trade reopen," the report said.

Business investment is tipped to "accelerate" in 2022 as uncertainty about the pandemic is expected to reduce.

While wealthier households where people have managed to save money during the crisis are expected to start spending.

"Higher than -

ON THE UP: Britain's GDP growth is expected to hit 7.2% in 2021 expected consumption if households run down excess savings more than assumed could boost growth considerably, while weaker than forecasted consumption and higher savings could lead to lower growth," it said.

The OECD said trade contracted at the start of the year after the Brexit transition ended "but [it] will recover slowly".

inflation fears

UK unemployment is projected to peak at 6.1 per cent at the end of the year after the final stages of the furlough job retention scheme comes to an end.

But the labour market is also stabilising; employment is on the rise with an increase in job vacancies. The OECD said its projections are based on the continued success of the vaccination programme, including the rollout's ability to deal with emerging virus strains.

It warned that supply bottlenecks might hold back consumption and increase inflation, if businesses fail to reopen or cannot attract the staff they need.

The think tank said that the worldwide recovery is at a "critical stage" and added that it might be uneven due to different rates of success in Covid inoculation programmes globally.

It continued: "Keeping up the pace of vaccinations and responding to emerging virus mutations are key challenges going forward."

The OECD warned that the UK could face the biggest decline in potential output growth on average among the G7 group of countries, with losses estimated to be relatively small in Japan, Canada and the United States. It says that is partly down to Brexit.

The OECD revised upwards its growth projections across the world's major economies, to 5.8 per cent this year. It predicted the euro area is projected to grow by 4.3 per cent this year and 4.4 per cent in 2022.

'critical stage'

The report said infections and deaths have remained at high levels in the single currency zone.

While vaccination rates have gathered pace, pressures on health systems there have "remained substantial" and forced many countries to maintain or reimpose tough coronavirus restrictions. Laurence Boone, the OECD's chief economist, said that the group's latest projections could give "hope" to people in countries hard-hit by the pandemic but which may soon be able to return to work and begin living normally again.

She added: "But we are at a critical stage of the recovery.

"Vaccination production and distribution have to accelerate globally and be backed by effective public health strategies."

Ms Boone continued: "Stronger international cooperation is needed to provide low-income countries with the resources – medical and financial – required to vaccinate their populations.

"Trade in healthcare products must be allowed to flow free of restrictions."

Responding to the positive report, Rain Newton-Smith, chief economist for the Confederation of British Industry, said: "As the country slowly but surely reopens, the economy has really taken off.

"Most sectors have seen a real uplift in activity in recent months and believe that the outlook for the summer is strong.

"But, as and when restrictions lift further, we shouldn't lose sight of how fragile the situation will remain for some businesses."

Boris and Carrie get hitched

■ Johnson becomes first PM to get married in office since 1822

Prime Minister Boris Johnson has married his fiancée Carrie Symonds in a secretly-planned wedding at Westminster Cathedral.

The marriage took place in a "small ceremony" on Saturday afternoon, a Downing Street spokesman said.

The spokesman added that the couple would celebrate again with family and friends next summer, with their honeymoon also delayed until then.

The prime minister returned to work on Monday morning. He is the first PM to get married while in office in nearly 200 years.

The Mail on Sunday reported that 30 guests were invited to the ceremony at short notice - the maximum number of attendees allowed under Covid restrictions in England.

A small number of church officials were involved in preparations for the Catholic ceremony, which was officiated by Father Daniel Humphreys, it said.

Although Mr Johnson, 56, has been married twice before, the Roman Catholic Church can allow divorcees to remarry if the previous marriages were outside the Church.

Congratulations

Boris Johnson likes to avoid talking about his private life - he's declined to answer questions on the topic for the past few years.

It can't have been easy to keep the wedding - between a former journalist and someone who works in public relations - under wraps. But it seems to have taken almost everyone in Westminster by surprise. Such was the desire to keep it quiet, Downing Street only officially confirmed it had happened on Sunday morning - the day after the wedding.

Downing Street did not reveal any details of who was invited and whether any of Mr Johnson's Cabinet colleagues were among the guests.

Several politicians have congratulated the couple, including Home Secretary Priti Patel, Health Secretary Matt Hancock, Vaccines Minister Nadhim Zahawi and Work and Pensions Secretary Therese Coffey.

Ms Patel wrote on Twitter: "Many Congratulations to Mr & Mrs Johnson @ BorisJohnson and @ CarrieSymonds. Wishing you both much love and happiness."

Musicians were pictured leaving No 10 on Saturday night.

Members of the public were asked to leave Westminster Cathedral just after 13:30 BST, the Sun reported.

The new Mrs Johnson - who has confirmed she will take her husband's surname - wore a white dress to exchange vows with the prime minister.

Her wedding dress was designed by Athens-based Christos Costarellos, who studied at the London College of Fashion and describes his work as being "inspired by the spirit of ancient Greek philosophy".

The last prime minister to get married while in

INTIMATE AFFAIR: just 30 guests were invited to the ceremony at Westminster Cathedral office was Robert Banks Jenkinson in 1822.

Mrs Johnson used to work in the Conservative Party press office, which she joined in 2010, and two years later she worked on Mr Johnson's successful campaign to be re-elected as mayor in London.

She became the party's head of communications before leaving in 2018 to work in public relations for marine conservation organisation Oceana. Mrs Johnson then became head of communications for conservation group the Aspinall Foundation in January.

The couple were first romantically linked by the media in early 2019. In February 2020, they revealed that they were engaged and that she was pregnant.

Their son, Wilfred, was born last April.

Mr Johnson and his previous wife, Marina Wheeler, announced in 2018 that they were divorcing after 25 years of marriage.

He was previously married to Allegra Mostyn-Owen.

Queen to scupper Philip boat bid?

THE Queen is resisting efforts to name a new £200million national flagship after Prince Philip amid Palace unease over the project.

Buckingham Palace officials are trying to distance the 95-year-old monarch from the plan to build a replacement for the Royal Yacht Britannia, which was decommissioned in 1997.

Whitehall sources insisted yesterday that it was "too soon to say" what the ship would be called. However, it is understood that, after floating the idea of naming it after the late Duke of Edinburgh, Boris Johnson has been forced to drop the plan.

The Queen is said to be wary of being seen to endorse the project at a time when public finances are stretched.

And she is unlikely ever to use the Royal

SORELY MISSED: HM Y Britannia leaving Cardiff ahead of her decommissioning in 1997

Navy vessel - which has been called a national flagship rather than a royal yacht - as she no longer travels abroad.

Other members of the Royal Family may use it to host dinners on official trips but it is expected to be used primarily by government ministers and diplomats to host trade meetings.

The Queen was devastated when Sir John Major's Conservative government announced in 1994 that it was retiring Britannia.

She secretly lobbied for a replacement in 1995 and was said to be furious when the issue became a political football. The Conservatives pledged to build a new yacht if they won the 1997 general election and Tony Blair's Labour Party refused.

She is said to fear the ship similarly embroiling the Royal Family in a political row when nurses, for example, are being offered a one per cent pay rise.

"It is not something we have asked for," one royal source said.

Buckingham Palace declined to discuss the idea, but said: "It is a government decision."

Four-day party planned to mark 70 glorious years...

BRITAIN is set to party over a bumper four-day bank holiday weekend to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee.

Buckingham Palace announced plans this week for a series of events marking her 70 years on the throne next year.

There will be events across the country throughout the year from February 6, 2022, when the Queen will become the first British sovereign to have been on the throne for seven decades.

Palace officials announced details of the celebrations over the weekend from Thursday, June 2 to Sunday, June 5, which will include a live concert featuring some of the world's biggest entertainment stars at Buckingham Palace on the Saturday.

The BBC, which staged similar concerts for the Queen's Golden and Diamond Jubilees in 2002 and 2012, has been chosen again to organise and broadcast the Platinum Party at the Palace.

This is despite royal anger at the corporation following an inquiry into the scandal of Martin Bashir lying to Princess Diana to persuade her to give her controversial 1995 interview to Panorama.

Milestone

Other key events include street parties, a jubilee pageant in the streets around Buckingham Palace, a service of thanksgiving at St Paul's Cathedral and a visit to the Derby for the Queen and her family.

The Palace released details to the media before tweeting: "The weekend will provide an opportunity for communities across the UK to come together to celebrate this historic milestone."

Courtiers insisted that the celebrations would bring no major cost to the taxpayer. One senior aide said: "Some of the events are self-funding and the rest will be covered within existing budgets."

The Queen and senior members of the Royal Family will travel around the country during the year to mark the milestone.

They will kick off the central weekend by bringing Trooping the Colour, the Queen's official birthday parade, back to central London after two years of a scaled-back ceremony at Windsor Castle because of coronavirus restrictions.

RAF flypast

It will be an earlier than normal Trooping the Colour, which is usually celebrated on the second Saturday of June, featuring 1,400 soldiers, 200 horses, and 400 musicians joined by members of the Royal Family on horseback, or in carriages, parading from Buckingham Palace to Horse Guards Parade.

It will close with a traditional RAF flypast, watched by the Queen and members of the Royal Family on the Palace balcony overlooking crowds on The Mall. That night beacons will be lit across the UK and in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, British Overseas Territories, and – for the first time – Commonwealth capitals.

On the Friday the Queen

In February the Queen will become the first British sovereign to have been on the throne for seven decades.

and her family will attend a thanksgiving service at St Paul's Cathedral. Further events will be announced.

The next day the Royal Family will join the Queen at the Derby on Epsom Downs

The BBC has not announced any of the acts yet but demand for tickets in a public ballot is expected to be high.

The Palace said: "Members of the public will be invited to apply to attend this special event and details of the ballot for UK residents to secure audience tickets will be released in due course."

On Sunday, June 5, people all from over Britain will be invited to come together to celebrate at a Big Jubilee Lunch.

The Palace added: "A Big Jubilee Lunch can be big or small – street party or picnic, tea and cake, or a garden barbecue."

That day there will also be a Platinum Jubilee Pageant, featuring more than 5,000 people from across the UK and Commonwealth.

Tears of joy for YouTube star Joe Wicks

BRITISH FITNESS guru Joe Wicks has revealed he "burst into tears" while reading thousands of letters from people thanking him for his online PE sessions during the pandemic.

Joe, 34, became a household name and YouTube sensation with his exercise routines during lockdown.

He described how he sat in his company's office – which he has been unable to visit for months because of Covid restrictions – and went through the letters from people who had joined in his workouts.

Joe said: "It was only then that I realised what I'd done. I just burst into tears.

"The gratitude from people was amazing, not just from the kids but from widows and people in care homes, saying, 'You got me through a really difficult time'.

"I've kept a lot of letters in a folder so I can look back in years to come and remember that yes, it was a challenging time, but it was also a highlight of my life. It gave me a purpose because I was able to help people."

Joe has kept busy throughout the pandemic with the launch of a podcast, an app and publishing three books.

He and wife Rosie, 30, hope to take a break with daughter Indie, two, and son Marley, one, in Australia to "do nothing" when it's allowed. His book Family Food: 100 Delicious, Easy Recipes to Enjoy Together is out on June 10.

Stargazing with Annie Shaw

ARIES: Your boss Mars is leaving watery Cancer soon and moving into his cousin Leo so it's time to get back to life with a vengeance. Whatever it is you are looking forward to, be patient.

TAURUS: Relationships of all kinds have taken a turn for the better. So while you have been planning certain things don't be surprised if you change your mind now.

GEMINI: You are ready to tackle life in all its glory again, however you will have to wait a little longer. Your boss Mercury has turned backward and plans are on hold for a couple of weeks. Happy Birthday!

CANCER: You have had plenty of time to complete anything in your home by now so as Mercury is slowing down get ready to stop. Now you really can do things at your leisure.

LEO: You could be planning a trip in the next few weeks. Just be patient as Mars is moving into your life for a couple of months and can help your plans later.

VIRGO: Stress is no stranger in your life occasionally but it is probably more of a problem right now. This is due to your boss Mercury moving backwards and you need to prepare for downtime.

LIBRA: Even though Mercury is in your cousin Gemini's sign moving backwards you can achieve more in the next couple of weeks than you expect. Get ready to move quickly when the time is right.

SCORPIO: Now that your boss is getting ready to move into Leo your power area you can start planning a new way to plan your expected changes. You will find its so much easier now. Your finances should also improve.

SAGITTARIUS: You may feel that life does not always have your highest good in mind. Now your boss Jupiter is in Pisces you will be able to think in a more insightful and positive way.

CAPRICORN: With your boss Saturn going backwards you could be forgiven for feeling out of control sometimes. Just remember you are not alone. Look at what you can do and let the rest go.

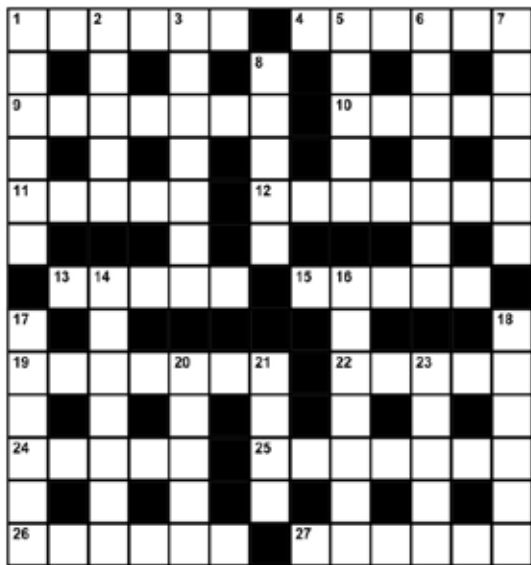

AQUARIUS: This is your time to plan your next steps forward so get going on releasing anything or any body who could be a negative source. While Jupiter is visiting your money house now it's good news.

PISCES: Like many others, you have been slowly coming to terms with the current situation and are fed up laying low. This is about to change much for the better. Jupiter is in your life, so good news.

NOTICE OF AMENDED PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF BEVERLY J. METOYER

Case No. 21STPB04165

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of BEVERLY J. METOYER

AN AMENDED PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Joseph P. Metoyer, Jr. in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE AMENDED PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Joseph P. Metoyer, Jr. be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE AMENDED PETITION requests the decedent's lost will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. Copies of the lost will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE AMENDED PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the amended petition will be held on June 8, 2021 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 5 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Brits in LA

Change for the better.... can you feel it coming?

A change is definitely coming!

Concerts are getting rescheduled. Comedy clubs are opening up, football fans are allowed back in to the stadiums and I even got to hug a couple of friends last weekend!

The Cat and Fiddle Pub in Hollywood was the place I picked to make my maiden voyage - I met up with a few friends to watch the Champions League final. Fortunately they were all Chelsea fans so we ordered a bottle of bubbly at the end of the game to toast the Blues.

Being vaccinated has definitely giving me a liberated feeling, I have to keep reminding myself it is not 100% effective and even if it was, that it is not necessary to hug everyone I see.

We are finally being allowed to go back to live shows! My mailbox has been filling up with emails from concert venues this week. There are so many great shows to choose from that if I wanted to attend them all I would have to sell everything I own. So I have made a long/shortlist as a starting point.

BEACHLIFE Festival at King's Harbor in Redondo Beach (September 10-12th) looks fun. It's a real mixed bag and there is literally something for everyone, from Jane's Addiction to Counting Crows, to The English Beat and Thievery Corporation and even Ziggy and Stephen Marley. The location next to the water can't be beat and if you are feeling flush check out their VIP packages - the 'Admiral's Package' includes a boat mooring for three nights and front row seats for every show! Alternatively if you don't have money to spend on tickets right now you can sign up to be part of their 'Beachcomber Crew' and attend for free! Visit www.beachlifefestival.com for details.

Cynthia Erivo, the British Nigerian actress, singer and songwriter will perform with the LA Phil at the Hollywood Bowl on July 30th. This multitalented artist from Stockwell, south London is only 34 and already won a Grammy, Tony and Emmy and even has an Oscar nomination under her belt for her work in Harriet. Cynthia will be making her Hollywood Bowl debut with a program titled "Legendary Voices." In addition to giving voice to music made famous by the greatest female singers of all time, including Aretha Franklin, Nina Simone, Ella Fitzgerald, and Billie Holiday, Erivo will also perform selections from her forthcoming debut album.

Everyone's favorite "Gothfather", Gary Numan, returns to Los Angeles with a show at the Fonda Theater on September 27. Tickets went on sale to the general public on Friday and are priced at $40. Visit axs.com for details. Gary shot to fame way back in the late 1970s as the brains behind electronic music pioneers Tubeway Army before going solo and scoring the monster hit "Cars". Numan is touring in support of his new album Intruder, released on May 21 via BMG. Additional Gary Numan tour dates include The Observatory in Santa Ana and The Observatory Northpark, Pappy & Harriet's in Pioneer Town — as well as shows in San Francisco, Sacramento, Portland, Austin, Atlanta, Dallas and more U.S. cities.

Best of British: Grammy, Tony and Emmy winner Cynthia Erivo performs at the Hollywood Bowl next month

Pet Shop Boys and New Order were due to play the Hollywood Bowl this summer as a double bill, but sadly this show has been postponed until 2022 - the good news is that Paul Oakenfold has been added to next year's line up. I have seen all three acts separately and they were all fantastic, so I can't imagine that this won't be either.

If you are missing live music but not feeling brave enough to venture out in to a crowd just yet, I highly recommend you purchase tickets Richard Shelton's show 'Sinatra and Me' which will be streaming live from Feinstein's at Vitello's on June 11th. I have been to a few of Richards shows and it is almost like seeing the real Frank Sinatra perform, I actually saw a few older Italian men in the audience wiping away their tears! He is a fellow Brit in LA and I know he would appreciate your support and I am pretty certain you will all love his performance.

The only thing I have actually bought tickets to so far is the Banksy: Genius or Vandal Exhibition which runs from August until October but get your tickets soon as they are selling out. In typical fashion the venue is currently secret but you can score your tickets at banksyexpo.com/los-angeles/

As I mentioned earlier, the pubs are finally allowed to show the football games, which is perfect timing as the Euros are due to kick off on June 11th. And for the first time since 1996 Scotland have qualified for this competition along with England and Wales! England and Scotland are in the same group so will be competing against each other on June 18th at Wembley stadium. The last time these two nations came face to face it was a two-all draw, I don't have any Scottish in me but as a Brit I still want them to do well.

Visit our blog at www.britsin.la for the latest details on which bars are screening the matches, this is also where you can find our Brits in Stage page, which is where we list concerts, plays and exhibitions that have a Brit or two involved.

If you get stuck you can drop me a line at eileen@britsin.la

Lastly, Craig and I are looking forward to bringing back our in person events very soon. We miss Breakfast Club and an in-person quiz night as much as you do. We just want to make sure we get it right before we start back up again. In the meantime you can join our virtual trivia night every Tuesday evening via Zoom. Sandro Monetti is our quizmaster and the winner gets a gift card to spend at The Cat & Fiddle.

Please drop us a line if you have any questions, suggestions or show recommendations we shouldn't miss, as we always love to hear from you!

Can't wait to see you all!
Cheers!
Eileen

Shakespeare Outdoors! Twelfth Night opening at the Sontag Greek Theatre

Shakespeare's classic comedy Twelfth Night opens in Claremont on July 15th at the Sontag Greek Theatre, on the campus of Pomona College in Claremont.

Prior to the performance, the venue will be open early to accommodate picnickers, with booths featuring artists and artisanal vendors. There will also be a nightly Green Show (a pre-show entertainment). Concessions including craft beer, wine and snacks will be available.

For the uninitiated Twelfth Night is a romantic comedy centering on the twins Viola and Sebastian, who are separated in a shipwreck. Viola (who is disguised as Cesario) falls in love with Duke Orsino, who in turn is in love with Countess Olivia. Upon meeting Viola, Countess Olivia falls in love with her, thinking she is a man. The play is filled with romance and laughs will make the ideal entry point to Shakespeare's works.

Covid safety protocols current on opening date will be observed.

Twelfth Night runs July 15 to July 25th, Thursdays through Sundays at 8pm. Admission is $25, children under 10 $20. For information call 909-734-6565. Online tickets at: opheliasjump.org.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF SUMNER W. BENNETT, JR. AKA SUMNER WEYMOUTH BENNETT, JR. AKA SUMNER W. BENNETT CASE NO. 21STPB05052

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: SUMNER W. BENNETT, JR. AKA SUMNER WEYMOUTH BENNETT, JR. AKA SUMNER W. BENNETT A Petition for Probate has been filed by GORDON ANDREW KATZ & BRADLEY JAY BENNETT in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

The Petition for Probate requests that GORDON ANDREW KATZ & BRADLEY JAY BENNETT be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

The Petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 6/24/2021 at 8:30 A.M. in Dept. 44 Room N/A located at 111 NORTH HILL STREET, LOS ANGELES, CA 90012.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF STEPHEN KALMAN

Case No. 21STPB05171

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of STEPHEN KALMAN

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Lela A. Osborne in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Lela A. Osborne be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on June 25, 2021 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 79 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Levy knows that a failure to attract a big-name manager could seriously damage him, and Conte would certainly be a glamour hire; a proven winner, not only in his native Italy, where he has just won his latest Serie A title with Internazionale, but in England as well. During Conte's two seasons at Chelsea, he won one Premier League and one FA Cup.

Conte left Inter last Wednesday because he was unhappy at their plan to sell about €80m of players to plug holes in their balance sheet. He had wanted backing for signings and a greater chance to build on his title win. The 51-year-old expects to be offered something similar by Levy, although it is unclear where the money would come from – with Spurs having sustained massive losses during the pandemic.

Levy said at the end of the season that he wanted his new manager to “embrace our desire to see young players flourish from our academy alongside experienced talent”. It is known that he previously wanted a figure in the mould of Mauricio Pochettino, the manager before Mourinho who worked wonders on a relatively small budget and developed a clutch of young players.

What Levy has made clear internally is that he will not countenance the sale of Kane, who has three years to run on his contract and is of interest to Manchester City, Manchester United and Chelsea.

Bees fly into top flight

BRENTFORD ensured it was a momentous weekend for west London, beating Swansea 2-0 in the Premier League promotion play off final on Sunday.

The result ended the longest play-off jinx in English football, as the Bees won for the 10th time of asking, and the happy-go-lucky nature of this local club was summed up when Bees manager Thomas Frank was ‘kidnapped’ midway through a post-match TV interview to be given the tossing-pancake treatment by his players.

Almost an hour later he was ambushed again, during a pitch-side chat on the radio, as the whole squad drenched him in beer, champagne, ice buckets and any available liquid agents.

Amid the stag-party pranks, you wondered if Frank might end up on the night sleeper to Inverness with his trousers on his head and a moustache painted on with a marker pen. “If I’m not home when my wife wakes up in the morning, she needs to send out a search party,” he laughed as he resolved to get “very drunk”.

Ancelotti exit is Real shock for Everton

EVERTON have been left scrambling for a new manager after Carlo Ancelotti's shock exit.

Nuno Espirito Santo and David Moyes currently head up the Toffees' shortlist to replace the Italian, who quit to return to Real Madrid.

Eddie Howe is another contender for the job, while Burnley boss Sean Dyche could be a potential candidate, although no moves have been made yet on any target.

The Toffees must act quickly after their pre-season plans were thrown into chaos by the surprise departure of Ancelotti after just 18 months in charge.

The 61-year-old boss arrived in December 2019 and signed a four-and-a-half year contract with ambitions to lead the club into the Champions League.

But he has been persuaded to return to Real by president Florentino Perez just two weeks after claiming rumours around him going back to Spain were not true.

But Ancelotti said: “I have complete respect for everyone associated with Everton and hope they can achieve the exciting opportunities they have in front of them.”

“While I have enjoyed being at Everton I have been presented with an unexpected opportunity which I believe is the right move for me and my family at this time.”

Ancelotti was sacked by Real in 2015 despite winning the Champions League in his two-year spell in charge.

Everton owner Farhad Moshiri and director of football Marcel Brands tried to convince Ancelotti to stay but they could not change his mind. Ancelotti, leaves the club having finished 10th in his first full Premier League campaign in charge with his final game a 5-0 defeat by Manchester City.

ARRIVERDERCI! Carlo Ancelotti lasted just 18 months at Goodison Park

Nuno left Wolves but Crystal Palace are keen on the Portuguese boss, who is also interested in returning to his homeland.

West Ham want to keep Moyes and have offered him a new deal as a reward for leading them to sixth in the Premier League this term.

But he was considered available back in December 2019 and is likely to be on the shortlist again.

Howe is another who was in the frame before the Italian got the nod to replace Marco Silva but his stock has since fallen and a move to Celtic fell through at the weekend.

Tuchel: I'm here for the long haul

THOMAS TUCHEL wants to become the first long-term manager of the Roman Abramovich era – and has told the Chelsea owner he can build a dynasty.

After victory over Manchester City in the Champions League final, the German laid out his vision to Abramovich at a meeting this week to hammer out a new deal that could see him stay at the club beyond 2023.

foundation

Asked if he could be the man to end the club's hire and-fire policy, Tuchel replied: “It's possible because the foundation is very strong. If we really want to build something, I'm all in, I can tell you.”

“I'm happy to discuss it. If our beliefs match, we go from there. We have to check with the owner if this is his plan, I think it's possible.”

Saturday's 1-0 win

Magic Tuch? The German has overseen a stunning transformation at Chelsea this term in Porto triggered an extension clause in Tuchel's 18-month contract that was set to run out next summer.

“There are no doubts I want to stay and it's not even the most important thing,” said the German. “If I have a one-year contract I will work in the same way like if I have a three or four-year contract.”

Tuchel will use his position of strength to pitch for summer signings to boost his squad, with Manchester City targets Harry Kane and Erling Haaland also on Chelsea's radar, along with West Ham midfielder Declan Rice.

“Two or three could be very, very good,” said Tuchel. “It's a constant thing to never deny change.”

The Chelsea squad partied the night away, the festivities at their Porto hotel stretching until 3am.

Agony for Trent!

■ Liverpool star out of Euros after suffering thigh injury in Austria friendly England defender Trent Alexander-Arnold has been ruled out of Euro 2020 with a thigh injury.

The Liverpool right-back hurt himself in the closing stages of Wednesday's friendly against Austria and a scan revealed he has suffered a quad tear.

The 22-year-old is expected to be sidelined for around six weeks and will return to his club for rehabilitation.

Manager Gareth Southgate will not name a replacement until after Sunday's final warm-up game with Romania.

Alexander-Arnold's inclusion as one of four right-backs was one of the main talking points when Southgate named his squad last week, with the Liverpool player having missed the previous seven internationals.

England's first game at Euro 2020 is against Croatia at Wembley on Sunday, 13 June.

Hopefully for Liverpool, Alexander-Arnold will be back for pre-season and the start of next season.

But for England, after all the debate around his selection, it's a heavy blow for Gareth Southgate. He could have been a very important player in the Euros.

One of the debating points when the squad was named was the inclusion of four right-backs.

England are well blessed in that position, even with Alexander-Arnold dropping out - Kieran Trippier won La Liga with Atletico Madrid, Kyle Walker won the Premier League with Manchester City and Reece James won the Champions League with Chelsea.

Southgate may choose to bring in Southampton's James Ward-Prowse, who many felt was unlucky to be left out, or Jesse Lingard, who played on Wednesday night and was involved in the goal.

Southgate has three quality right-backs in the squad already, and they are versatile, so that maybe leaves him room for manoeuvre further forward in midfield.

THE AGONY: Alexander-Arnold leaves the field Wednesday night

ANTONIO CONTE: left Inter this week after guiding them to a Scudetto title

Spurs closing in on Conte?

■ The Italian has previously described Harry Kane as 'dream striker'

Tottenham are said to be closing in on the appointment of Antonio Conte, with talks having progressed quickly, and there is a confidence at the club that their long search for a manager is almost over.

Daniel Levy, the Spurs chairman, sacked José

Mourinho on 19 April - the team finished the season under the inexperienced interim Ryan Mason - and he has been under intense pressure from supporters to deliver an exciting replacement.

The team imploded over the second half of this past season and Levy raised the temperature further with his rush to join the ultimately doomed European Super League. The club's talisman, Harry Kane, has made clear that he wants a transfer as his frustration at being unable to win trophies has boiled over. cont. on page 15, col. 1
