

LIFE TERM FOR LETBY

■ "Sadistic" child killer will die in jail after judge gives her whole-life sentence
 ■ Victm's mother tells nurse 'in your own words, you are evil. You did this'

Neonatal nurse Lucy Letby, who is the most prolific child serial killer in modern British history, will spend the rest of her life behind bars.

The 33-year-old was convicted last Friday of murdering seven babies and attempting to kill six other infants at the Countess of Chester Hospital.

Letby deliberately injected babies with air, force fed others milk and poisoned two of the infants with insulin. She refused to appear in the dock for her sentencing hearing.

The judge proceeded without her and said he was addressing her as if she were in the dock.

Letby was given multiple whole-life terms - one for each offence - becoming only the fourth woman in UK history to receive such a sentence.

Whole-life orders are the most severe punishment available and are reserved for those who commit the most heinous crimes.

'morbid records'

Mr Justice Goss said the "cruelty and calculation" of Letby's actions between June 2015 and June 2016 were "truly horrific".

"You acted in a way that was completely contrary to the normal human instincts of nurturing and caring for babies and in gross breach of the trust that all citizens place in those who work in the medical and caring professions," he said.

He added handover sheets relating to all but the first four babies were found when police searched Letby's home, which he was satisfied she kept as "morbid records".

Passing sentence, he said: "There was a malevolence bordering on sadism in your actions.

"During the course of this trial you have coldly denied any responsibility for your wrongdoing.

"You have no remorse. There are no mitigating factors."

He said Letby, originally from Hereford, would be provided with copies of his remarks and the personal statements of the parents.

The 33-year-old was also convicted of trying to kill six other infants at the Countess of Chester Hospital.

The trial lasted for more than 10 months and is believed to be the longest murder trial in the UK.

BEYOND BELIEF: Lucy Letby was found guilty of murdering seven babies and the attempted murder of six others

Judge Gross told Letby: "You have no remorse. There are no mitigating factors."

Letby, originally of Hereford, broke down in tears as the first guilty verdicts were read out by the jury's foreman on 8 August after 76 hours of deliberations.

She cried with her head bowed as the second set of guilty verdicts were returned on 11 August.

The refusal to attend court last week has led to renewed calls for a new law to compel convicted criminals to attend court for sentencing hearings.

consequences

Letby's expected absence from the dock is the latest in a series of high-profile trials where convicted murderers have refused to turn up, including the killers of Zara Aleena in London and nine-year-old Olivia Pratt-Korbel in Liverpool.

Former prison governor Prof Ian

Acheson told reporters courts should have the power to compel criminals into the courtroom "to be sentenced in front of the people they have harmed".

Earlier this year, the government said it was committed to introducing legislation to ensure criminals are made to appear in the dock for sentencing.

News from Britain

As a child, the serial killer attended Aylestone School where she was described as a 'normal happy smiling child'

Lucy Letby: Community's rage as 'smiling girl' becomes child killer

The community where the UK's most prolific serial child killer grew up say they are shocked and enraged by her crimes.

Lucy Letby was convicted of murdering seven babies and attempting to kill six other infants at the Countess of Chester Hospital.

The 33-year-old neonatal nurse has been given 14 whole-life sentences.

Those from her childhood neighbourhood in Hereford say they have been left feeling despair, confusion and pain.

Letby deliberately injected babies with air, force fed others milk and poisoned two of the infants with insulin.

She will now spend the rest of her life behind bars, becoming only the fourth woman in UK history to receive such a sentence.

The disgraced nurse grew up in the city with her parents John and Susan and attended Aylestone School before going on to Hereford Sixth Form College.

'desperately sorry'

Neighbours on the street where she grew up described her as a "normal happy smiling child" and say they feel "desperately sorry" for the parents of the babies she killed and injured.

Letby's mother and father are said to be well-liked by the community.

"This is one of those moments of unspeakable tragedies when we are having to face the unthinkable," said Fiona Gibson, the Archdeacon of Ludlow.

She added: "Within the city and across the whole country, people are feeling anger, despair, rage, shock, grief, confusion and pain.

"At a time like that, when words aren't enough, the church offers the opportunity to hold all of those emotions up before God, silently in prayer, or hold them in your thoughts.

"Many of our churches will be open for people to go in and think, pour out those emotions and light a candle if that helps, or to say a prayer."

Whole Life Terms: the penalty Britain reserves for only the most evil

WHOLE-LIFE orders are the most severe punishment available in the country's criminal justice system and they are reserved for those who commit the most heinous crimes.

These people will never be considered for release unless there are exceptional compassionate grounds to warrant it.

Lucy Letby, at 33, joins a string of the country's most dangerous offenders who are likely to die behind bars.

Only three women have previously been handed such a sentence – Myra Hindley, girlfriend of Moors murderer Ian Brady, who died in 2002, plus serial killers Rose West and Joanna Dennehy.

Under the Police,

Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act, which became law last year, the Government expanded the use of whole-life orders for the premeditated murder of a child.

sexual abuse

The reforms also allow judges to hand out the maximum sentence to 18 to 20-year-olds in exceptional cases, such as for acts of terrorism leading to mass loss of life.

A total of 70 criminals are serving whole-life orders.

They include Sarah Everard's killer Wayne Couzens, homegrown terrorist Ali Harbi Ali who murdered MP Sir David Amess, and necrophiliac David Fuller.

The latter was sentenced in December for the murders of two women in Kent in 1987, and the sexual abuse of more than 100 dead women and girls in hospital mortuaries.

Louis De Zoysa is another. He shot Metropolitan Police custody sergeant Matt Ratana while handcuffed in a police cell in 2020.

Others include: Milly Dowler's killer Levi Bellfield; Michael Adebolajo, one of Fusilier Lee Rigby's killers; Mark Bridger, who murdered April Jones, five, in Wales; neo-Nazi Thomas Mair, who killed MP Jo Cox; serial killer Stephen Port; and the Reading terror attacker Khairi Saadallah, who murdered three men in a park.

secretary Sir Robert Buckland backed the government's announcement, saying defendants should face tougher consequences if they refuse to appear in the dock, such as receiving longer sentences.

Facilitating "better ways in which defendants really have nowhere to hide" when it comes to listening or seeing the court "even if they're in the cell" is another option for the government to explore, Sir Robert added.

"We use television, video links all the time when it comes to defendants who might be on a live link from the prison, for a procedural hearing or even a sentence hearing," he told BBC Radio 4's Today programme.

He said this would avoid "disruptive behaviour" that would "cause upset to the victims and the wider public".

Families of victims said they will "forever be grateful" to jurors who had to sit through 145 days of "gruelling" evidence.

Labour leader Sir Kier Starmer and urged the government to push through such legislation without delay and has pledged his party's support for any legislation to expedite the process.

The defendant was found not guilty of two attempted murder charges and the jury was undecided on further attempted murder charges relating to four babies.

Nicholas Johnson KC, prosecuting, asked the court for 28 days to consider whether a retrial would be sought for the remaining six counts of attempted murder.

During the trial, which started in October, the prosecution labelled Letby as a "calculating and devious" opportunist who "gaslighted" colleagues to cover her "murderous assaults".

She was convicted following a two-year investigation by Cheshire Police into the alarming and unexplained rise in deaths and near-fatal collapses of premature babies at the hospital.

The government has ordered an independent inquiry into the circumstances behind the baby murders.

Beaten Lionesses 'wanted more'

■ Defeated World Cup finalists arrive home, vowing to 'come back even stronger'

England forward Lauren Hemp said the Lionesses "created history" but "wanted more" as the team arrived home from the Women's World Cup final in Australia.

The players landed at Heathrow airport on Tuesday morning following their 1-0 defeat by Spain on Sunday.

Fans waited in the terminal to greet the team but they left without going through the arrivals area.

This is the normal process for the men's and women's team to exit an airport.

Manchester City's Hemp, 23, wrote on X (formerly known as Twitter): "This tournament has brought some unbelievable highs but ultimately we fell just short.

"We created history but we wanted more. So much more.

"Thank you so much for the support back home and in Australia we felt you. It'll hurt for a while but we'll come back even stronger. Proud."

'Untouchable' former Met police officer jailed for rape of female colleague and 16-year-old girl

■ Judge says force protected Adam Provan by ignoring officer's complaints, allowing him to attack teenager

The Metropolitan police protected a predatory rapist within their ranks, dismissing the complaints of one of his victims and leaving him free to attack a teenager, a judge has said.

Adam Provan, 44, was on Tuesday jailed for 16 years, followed by eight years on licence, for eight counts of raping two victims between 2003 and 2010.

The former officer was convicted in June of six counts of rape of a female police officer with whom he had been in a relationship between 2003 and 2005, and two counts of rape of a 16-year-old girl in 2010.

Judge Noel Lucas KC said the force should be ashamed, that their response to the female officer's complaint had been "abysmal and shocking" and that they had been more interested in "looking out for one of their own".

The first victim, who is still a police officer, said Provan thought he was untouchable and that she feared she would be killed. The trial at Wood Green crown court heard that he held a pillow over her face and burned her with a kettle as part of a campaign of "abuse and harassment".

The woman complained to the Met about stalking and harassment by Provan in 2005. The court was told she was reluctant to make a full statement at the time, having been labelled by fellow officers as a "grievous plonk". She came forward to report the rapes only in 2019.

Lucas said to Provan: "I find it highly troubling that [the officer's] colleagues in the Metropolitan police in 2004-05 were more concerned about looking out for 'one of their own' than in taking her seriously and investigating her complaints about you. Had they done so, it may be that [the second victim] would have been spared the ordeal she has had to go through."

The Met pledged to carry out a full investigation into the missed opportunities to stop Provan.

The Met assistant commissioner Louisa Rolfe said: "We can already see there were key moments where we let women down and did not do all we could to support them. We have told the Independent Office for Police Conduct we are carrying out a review and advised them that we will make appropriate referrals."

PROUD OF YOU: fans waiting at Heathrow's terminal to greet the team

The world champions held their victory parade and trophy celebrations in Madrid on Monday.

Jess Carter said she had "nothing but absolute pride" as the Lionesses became the first England football team since 1966 to reach a senior final on the world stage.

"Couldn't have asked for a better group of staff and players to experience my first World Cup with," wrote the 25-year-old Chelsea defender on X.

"Thanks to everyone for the incredible support we have been given, we felt the love since game one."

England are next in action against Scotland in the group stages of the inaugural Women's Nations League on 22 September at 19:45 BST.

Autistic teen the brains behind international cyber hacking gang

A court has found an 18-year-old from Oxford was a part of an international cyber-crime gang responsible for a hacking spree against major tech firms.

Arion Kurtaj was a key member of the Lapsus$ group which hacked the likes of Uber, Nvidia and Rockstar Games.

A court heard Kurtaj leaked clips of the unreleased Grand Theft Auto 6 game while on bail in a Travelodge hotel.

The audacious attacks by Lapsus$ in 2021 and 2022 shocked the cyber security world.

Kurtaj is autistic and psychiatrists deemed him not fit to stand trial so he did not appear in court to give evidence.

The jury were asked to determine whether or not he did the acts alleged - not if he did it with criminal intent.

The group from the UK, and allegedly Brazil, was described in court as "digital bandits".

The gang - thought to mostly be teenagers - used con-man like tricks as well as computer hacking to gain access to multinational corporations such as Microsoft, the technology giant and digital banking group Revolut.

During their spree the hackers regularly celebrated their crimes publicly and taunted victims on the social network app Telegram in English and Portuguese.

The trial was held in Southwark Crown Court in London for seven weeks.

Jurors heard that the unnamed teenager started hacking with Kurtaj in July 2021 having met online.

Kurtaj aided by Lapsus$ associates, hacked the servers and data files of telecoms company BT and EE, the mobile operator, before demanding a $4m (£3.1m) ransom on 1 August 2021.

No ransom was paid

but the court heard that the 17-year-old and Kurtaj used stolen SIM details from five victims to steal a total of nearly £100,000 from their cryptocurrency accounts which were secured by their compromised mobile phone SIM identities.

Both defendants were initially arrested on 22nd January 2022, then released under investigation.

That did not deter the duo who continued hacking with Lapsus$ and successfully breached Nvidia, a Silicon Valley tech giant that makes chips for artificial intelligence chatbots, in February 2022.

They stole and leaked sensitive and valuable data and demanded a ransom payment to stop them releasing more.

Kurtaj and the youth were both re-arrested on March 31st 2022.

Shortly before his arrest, Kurtaj was "doxxed" by rival hackers who posted his and his families contact details online along with pictures and videos of the keen fisherman from social media.

Kurtaj was moved into a Travelodge hotel in Bicester for his safety and given strict bail conditions including a ban from going on the internet.

But Kurtaj carried on hacking.

Prosecutors say he was "caught red handed" when City of London Police searched his hotel room.

In a "flagrant disregard for his bail conditions", jurors were told that police found an Amazon Fire Stick in his hotel TV allowing him to connect to cloud computing services with a newly purchased smart phone, keyboard and mouse.

The court heard he had helped attack Revolut, Uber and Rockstar Games.

Kurtaj was re-arrested and detained until his trial. Sentencing is expected next week.

'Ahead of its time': wooden car goes under the hammer in Bath

■ Hustler DIY kit car was crafted by former Rolls-Royce engineer and school woodwork teacher in 1980s

It has had one careful owner, has never failed an MOT and there is no way the body work is going to rust.

But whoever buys John Brazier's car at auction in Bath next month will have to get used to some pretty odd looks when they take it out for a spin.

The body of the six-wheeled Hustler car and interior were made out of wood by Brazier, a retired Bristol woodwork and metalwork teacher.

Though it looks like something out of an animated film, the Hustler is expected to attract attention from around the world when it goes under the hammer.

"It is quite possibly the most amazing car I have ever seen," said the auctioneer Andrew Stowe. "It's like something from Thunderbirds.

"Everything is made to an incredible standard. Even the steering wheel and gear knob were handmade from wood. It was a real labour of love.

"A wooden car could almost be something dreamt up by Elon Musk - a sustainable way to build cars, an eco-friendly alternative to the mass-production car plants of today. It was remarkably way ahead of its time. Who knows, in 30 years we may all be driving wooden cars."

BRITISH INGENUITY? Fewer than 400 Hustler kit cars, designed in the 1970s, have been built, and most were made using fibreglass

The Hustlers were kit cars made by the Gloucestershire designer William Towns, who also created the angular Aston Martin Lagonda.

Fewer than 400 Hustlers were built by motor enthusiasts, mostly using fibreglass. Brazier, who worked at a comprehensive in Bristol, was one of those who opted to build his out of wood.

The car has Mini wheel subframes and an Austin Allegro engine and seats, and Brazier - a former Rolls-Royce engineer who worked on Concorde in the 1960s - built whatever he could out of wood over three summers in the 1980s.

Brazier, 76, said he had decided to sell the car because he could no longer drive it. "I'd love to occasionally see it being driven around but I just hope it goes to a good home."

He said he had built it out of water-resistant plywood and ash, using his summer holidays from school to do the many hundreds of hours of work.

It could do "well over 60mph" and he always felt safe in it, he said. After a van collided with him because the driver was so startled by his car's appearance, he got the dents out of the bonnet by dousing it with water and then ironing the damage out. "The wood just pops up again - you wouldn't know it had been damaged."

It served as the main family vehicle for 13 years, taking the Brazier family the length and breadth of the country on holiday. He would also drive it into his Brislington school.

It is roomy, able to sit up to eight people: two in the front, two in the middle and four on twin bench seats at the back.

The sales blurb says the attention to detail on the vehicle is "second to none", including a wooden gear knob, handbrake handle and steering wheel. The car also has a tape deck and a glove compartment with cup holders.

It is expected to sell for £2,000 to £3,000 at Auctioneum's fine art, antiques and classic cars sale on 1 September.

UK carries out its first-ever womb transplant

BRITISH SURGEONS have made medical history by carrying out the country's first womb transplant.

Surgeons at the Churchill Hospital in Oxford successfully transplanted a sister's womb to her 34-year-old sibling in an operation that lasted nine hours and 20 minutes on Sunday, according to local media reports.

The operation to remove the donor's womb lasted more than eight hours.

"It was incredible. I think it was probably the most stressful week in my surgical career but also unbelievably positive," Richard Smith, the lead surgeon for the operation, told the UK's Press Association.

"The donor and recipient are over the moon, just over the moon."

The recipient of the womb, also called a uterus, was diagnosed with Mayer-Rokitansky-Kuster-Hauser (MRKH), a rare condition that impacts women's reproductive systems.

In order to conceive, she stored her embryos with the goal of undergoing in vitro fertilisation (IVF) treatments later this year.

But her sister, 40, was willing to donate her uterus after giving birth to her own two children, facilitating a womb transplant procedure.

Rolling Stones sneak cryptic teaser ad for new album in local London newspaper

■ Mysterious advert in Hackney Gazette references Hackney Diamonds, 'opening September 2023'

The Rolling Stones have slipped out an announcement about their new album using a cryptic local newspaper advert.

The surviving members of the band, now in their 70s and 80s, chose London's Hackney Gazette to this week reveal details of the new record to their knowing fans.

To the uninitiated, the advert may look like an unremarkable notice for a new local store.

Hackney Diamonds, specialists in glass repair, opening September 2023," it told readers on page 3 of the paper.

But underneath there are more clues to the advert's true meaning. It says: "Our friendly team promises you satisfaction. When you say gimme shelter we'll fix your shattered windows."

Keen-eyed fans quickly realized the advert was a teasing promotion for the band's 31st studio album, out in September.

Stonies aficionados have been enjoying sharing the many knowing references in the advert to the band's history, lyrics and iconography.

The ad itself is dotted with the band's tongue and lips logo. Diamonds is also a reference to the Rolling Stones's 60th anniversary tour, which began last year in Madrid.

References to at least three of the band's best-known hits are included in the text of the advert: (I Can't Get No) Satisfaction, Gimme Shelter and

ROCK OF AGES: Mick Jagger turned 80 last month

Shattered.

And according to the leading music paper NME, the font used for the words Hackney Diamonds is the same as the one used on their 1978 album Some Girls. And "Est 1962", at the foot of the advert, is a reference to the year the Rolling Stones were formed.

A web link takes users to a site to register their interest. The conditions list Universal Music Group, which handles the Rolling Stones' back catalogue.

It seems the publicity campaign has been in the making for a while. A related website which also carries the ad, hackneydiamonds.com, was registered as a domain in April of this year.

Earlier this month bronze figures of the band's frontman, Mick Jagger, and guitarist Keith Richards were unveiled in their home town of Dartford, Kent, where the pair met in 1961.

The new album will be the first to be released since the death two years ago of drummer Charlie Watts.

Relishing a proper Sunday roast

■ Craig Young savors a new local British venture in DTLA

With the recent closure of so many British establishments in LA - including The Village Idiot, The Pig & Whistle, The Chap and the Market Tavern, it seems like British pubs might, sadly be a dying breed in these parts.

So I was very relieved to be invited to tour and savor a local new British venture with a twist. And I must say, my visit to BikeShed in downtown LA was quite the delight.

I was expecting to be greeted by a group of Hell's Angels, but on the contrary owners Dutch and Vicky are more your Islington-gentrified types who boast Ewan McGregor and Gerard Butler as close rider friends. Moreover perhaps the most famous action star in the world - Tom Cruise - has been by for a meal or two.

"It's a space for riders of all walks of life but mainly those that enjoy biking bit not the rebellious lifestyle associated with it," as Dutch and Vicky put it. The Sunday roast experience was nothing short of authentic, with the beef, chicken, and vegan nut roast all proving to be delectable choices. The vegan gravy was surprisingly rich in flavor, complementing the nut roast perfectly. As for desserts, the apple crumble with ice cream and the bread and butter pudding with custard were simply divine.

Get there early though as it's very popular and likely to run out!

What truly sets BikeShed apart is its remarkable space - it's a converted abandoned warehouse that has been thoughtfully curated. The central long bar, event space, and private members' bar (reserved exclusively for riders) provide an eclectic atmosphere. The inclusion of a barbershop, clothing store, and even a tattoo parlor adds an intriguing touch. The variety of seating options, from stylish booths to high-top tables and comfortable couches, caters to different preferences. And let's not forget the patio, an ideal spot to enjoy British beers on warm sunny days.

Admittedly, I had reservations about its location in the art district of downtown LA, but I must say, you needn't venture elsewhere. BikeShed delivers an authentic British experience in a uniquely repurposed setting, making it a must-

The Real McCoy: the Sunday roast at BikeShed is worth the trip to downtown visit for anyone seeking both delectable cuisine and a distinct atmosphere.

I'm booking a haircut a tattoo and a Sunday roast for next week!!! See ya there

EVERYONE'S A WINNER!

"The important thing is not winning but taking part," said the founder of the modern Olympics, Baron Pierre de Coubertin...

And the same is true for Brits in LA Pub Quiz each Tuesday.

The bonus there is that even teams that finish outside the top three at O'Brien's in Santa Monica can also get prizes - ranging from a giant potato to a can of wieners (see photo, above).

But every contest needs a winner and last time out it was Hilary Blows In who took the garden gnome trophy and a round of free drinks.

Join quizmaster Sandro Monetti and your fellow Brits in LA for more trivia fun at O'Brien's next Tuesday, night August 29. All welcome.

LIBRA: You have likely of late found some new area of interest. You will soon be busy, however not so much this next couple weeks due to Mercury's slow down.

SCORPIO: Your health is important now that Mars your boss has moved into that area. Just make sure you take care of any issues in a timely fashion. You are in a more settled time frame and life will be more social soon.

SAGITTARIUS: There are some of you who do not have any idea why you are upbeat and in good spirits. This is your nature usually. Mercury is in Virgo backwards now and can slow you down somewhat so make this a resting time.

CAPRICORN: Life has been better and it will continue, however life will slow down while Mercury is in your cousin sign Virgo going backwards. Take this time to have an early spring clean.

AQUARIUS: While times have been a little uncertain knowing you help other people should really help in your own life. Now Mercury is on a go slow you will benefit by working on relaxing somewhat.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF GREGORIO GUILLERMO STIUSO

Case No. 23STPB08389

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of GREGORIO GUILLERMO STIUSO A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Victorio Stiuso in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Victorio Stiuso be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Sept. 7, 2023 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 4 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (844) 477-7869 or visit this Internet Web site www.stoxposting.com, using the file number assigned to this case CR22-1023. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: Effective 1/1/2021. You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer" you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (844) 477-7869, or visit this internet website www.stoxposting.com, assigned to this case CR22-1023 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF LISA BELL-SCHNYDER CASE NO. 23STPB0902

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of LISA BELL-SCHNYDER.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by KYLE SCHNYDER in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that KYLE SCHNYDER be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 10/31/23 at 8:30AM in Dept. 11 located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate

Shaw on the sidelines

Manchester United defender Luke Shaw is set for an extended period on the sidelines after suffering a muscle injury.

United are still assessing the full extent of the injury but acknowledge the 28-year-old left-back will be out for a number of weeks.

He will miss England's games against Ukraine and Scotland next month.

Manager Erik ten Hag already has injury problems at left-back with Tyrell Malacia also out.

Meanwhile, Brandon Williams has been loaned to Championship side Ipswich Town.

Diogo Dalot has played on the left in the past but it is a problem Ten Hag can do without as he looks to navigate his way through United's unconvincing start to the season.

United beat Wolves 1-0 before losing 2-0 to Tottenham.

Manchester United are also currently without midfielder Mason Mount and forward Rasmus Hojlund through injury.

appropriate for him to do so away from Old Trafford, and we will now work with Mason to achieve that outcome.

"Based on the evidence available to us, we have concluded that the material posted online did not provide a full picture and that Mason did not commit the offences in respect of which he was originally charged. That said, as Mason publicly acknowledges today, he has made mistakes which he is taking responsibility for."

In a statement, Greenwood accepted he had "made mistakes" and took his "share of responsibility", but added: "I did not do the things I was accused of."

He said: "Today's decision has been part of a collaborative process between Manchester United, my family and me. The best decision for us all is for me to continue my football career away from Old Trafford, where my presence will not be a distraction for the club. I thank the club for their support since I joined aged seven. There will always be a part of me which is United.

"I am enormously grateful to my family and all my loved ones for their support, and it is now for me to repay the trust those around me have shown. I intend to be a better footballer, but most importantly a good father, a better person, and to use my talents in a positive way on and off the pitch."

Greenwood, whose contract at Old Trafford runs until 2025, could now be sold, or loaned to another club for the remainder of his contract.

He remains on full pay but will not return to training with United.

Doku seals City switch

Manchester City have completed the signing of Belgium winger Jeremy Doku from Rennes for £55.4m.

Last season's Treble winners have agreed a five-year contract with the 21-year-old (above), who scored 10 goals in 75 Ligue 1 appearances across three seasons.

Doku, who has 16 caps for Belgium, has taken the number 11 shirt.

"This is a great day for me, both personally and professionally. City are the best team in world football, so joining them is special," Doku said.

Doku becomes Pep Guardiola's third summer signing after midfielder Mateo Kovacic arrived for £25m from Chelsea and defender former RB Leipzig defender Josko Gvardiol joined for £77m.

West Ham, Tottenham and Chelsea had also been interested in signing Doku, who scored seven goals in 35 games last season.

Doku had two years left on the five-year deal he signed when Rennes paid 26m euros (£22.3m) to sign him from Anderlecht in October 2020, shortly after he made his international debut as a teenager.

Doku cited the opportunity to work under City boss Guardiola as a key factor in his decision to join the Premier League champions.

"I am a young player with so much learning and improving to do," added the Antwerp-born winger.

But Spain defender Aymeric Laporte has left the club to join Saudi Pro League side Al Nassr in a deal worth 27.5m euros (£23.6m).

The 29-year-old joined City from Athletic Bilbao in January 2018 for a then club record £57m.

He helped City win 12 major honours but made just 24 appearances as the Blues won the Treble last season.

In a goodbye message on social media, Laporte thanked fans and team-mates for an "unforgettable" time at the club.

"It has lasted five-and-a-half unforgettable years. Plenty of memories that I will keep forever close to my heart," said Laporte.

"It was an honour and a pleasure to wear these colours and I hope you will remember me in a good way. I will always be a City fan and I look forward to seeing you all again."

Guardiola to miss two games after back surgery

■ Assistant Juanma Lillo will take charge of side

Pep Guardiola will be absent from the touchline for Manchester City's next two matches after having an operation to correct his "severe back pain".

According to the club, their treble-winning manager has been struggling with the injury for a while and flew out to Barcelona on Tuesday for an "emergency" but "routine" surgery, which was successful.

Guardiola, 52, will remain in Barcelona during his convalescence and is expected to miss City's matches against Sheffield United on Sunday and Fulham on 2 September, with the assistant manager, Juanma Lillo, stepping in. City anticipate Guardiola returning to the dugout after the international break for the visit to West Ham on 16 September.

In a statement the club said: "Pep Guardiola has today undergone a routine operation on a back problem. The Manchester City boss has been suffering with severe back pain for some time lately, and flew out to Barcelona for emergency surgery performed by Dr Mireia Illueca. The surgery was a success, and Pep will now recover and rehabilitate in Barcelona.

BACK AGAIN? very soon, allegedly

"In his absence, assistant manager Juanma Lillo will oversee coaching of the first team on the training field and will assume duties on the touchline until Pep's return. He is expected to return after the forthcoming international break. Everyone at Manchester City wishes Pep a speedy recovery, and look forward to seeing him back in Manchester soon."

City are second in the Premier League with six points after victories against Burnley and Newcastle.

Lillo, 57, first moved to the Etihad Stadium in summer 2020, replacing Mikel Arteta as Guardiola's assistant after guiding Qingdao Huanghai to promotion to the top-tier Chinese Super League. He left before City's treble-winning campaign last season to take up a head coach role with AlSadd in Qatar but came back to City this month.

Lillo has had a peripatetic career: as well as coaching in his native Spain, he has taken charge of sides in Colombia and Japan, and has served as understudy to Jorge Sampaoli with the Chile national side.

Mr Washington comes to Chelsea

Chelsea have completed the signing of Brazilian forward Deivid Washington from Santos for a fee in the region of 20m euros (£17.2m).

Washington, 18, has signed a seven-year contract at Stamford Bridge with the option of a further year.

He is Chelsea boss Mauricio Pochettino's ninth signing of the summer transfer window.

"I'm very happy to be joining a huge team like Chelsea," Washington told the club's website.

"I can't wait to make my debut here at such a big club, and provide lots of goals and assists."

Washington began his career with Gremio before he joined Santos in 2016.

His goalscoring in the youth ranks at Santos saw the youngster force his way into the first-team setup at the Brazilian club this year.

The versatile forward subsequently made a total of 16 senior appearances for Santos in all competitions and scored two goals before he made the move to Stamford Bridge.

He is the second player from Santos to join Chelsea this summer following the arrival of 18-year-old winger Angelo last month.

Pochettino said Moises Caicedo is "ready" to start his first match for Chelsea since his £100m move to the club from Brighton.

Chelsea face Luton on Friday night in the Premier League at Stamford Bridge.

Caicedo made his debut in Chelsea's 3-1 loss at West Ham on Sunday and gave away a penalty in a disappointing first outing.

Chelsea are winless after their first two Premier League games.

Ruthless Villa rout Hibs

■ Emery's men make blistering return to European action with 5-0 win at Easter Road

Ollie Watkins' devastating hat-trick helped ruthless Aston Villa mark their return to European football with a first-leg Europa Conference League play-off demolition of Hibernian on Wednesday night.

Hibs hero John McGinn's Easter Road homecoming dominated much of the pre-match build-up, but England striker Watkins rightly grabbed the headlines after a phenomenal display at a sell-out Easter Road.

Following a bright start, the Scottish Premiership side could not deal with their clinical Premier League visitors upping the ante as Watkins glanced in a sublime header before nodding in a second at the back post.

Leon Bailey then powered in a close-range header of his own to put Villa - regarded as tournament favourites by many - in complete control at the break in their first European game in 13 years.

Watkins thought the offside flag had denied him a treble just after the interval, but the VAR reviewed his first-time finish past David Marshall, with Douglas Luiz's penalty sealing a record-equalling European win for Unai Emery's side.

Next Thursday's second leg at Villa Park will be about damage limitation for Hibs and Lee Johnson, who watched his side crumble in his 500th game as a manager after his brave attacking line-up briefly rattled the visitors early on.

In the opposite dugout, four-time Europa League winner Emery took no chances with his XI, including big-money summer signings Pau Torres and Moussa Diaby starting.

But with a boisterous home crowd on top of them, Villa had to weather a short storm from Hibs, which included a weak Martin Boyle volley and an equally tame penalty shout.

But after Watkins planted Lucas Digne's inch-perfect ball into the far corner, it was about how many Villa wanted.

They got five, but it could have been nearly double had Marshall not denied Bailey with a fine Emery said in the build-up to this that he wanted to "write new history" with the 1982 European Cup winners. With the squad at his disposal, and his serial winning mentality at this level, he may well scribe a successful new chapter at Villa Park.

After the match Hibernian manager Lee Johnson said: "First of all, I was proud of the club for getting to this point. I was disappointed with the scoreline. I felt the shape was okay in the first half, but in terms of moments in our control we weren't good enough.

"The gulf in quality showed after that period in the first 20 minutes.

Too many times we gave the ball away, too many times we were offside.

That was the lesson for us and we hope we can learn from this.

"There's huge differences between the budgets and we're doing well to compete at this level and today is a big lesson for us."

United to part company with Greenwood

Manchester United forward Mason Greenwood will leave the club by mutual agreement after a six-month internal investigation into his conduct.

Greenwood was arrested in January 2022 following allegations surrounding material which was published online.

Charges against the 21-year-old England international, including attempted rape and assault, were dropped on February 2nd.

United said in a statement: "All those involved, including Mason, recognise the difficulties with him recommencing his career at Manchester United.

"It has therefore been mutually agreed that it would be most
