CHARLES 'APPALLED' BY HAMAS BARBARISM

HORRIFIED King Charles has said he is "appalled" by Hamas's "barbaric" terror acts against Israel.

Buckingham Palace said the King was "extremely concerned" and his thoughts and prayers were with all who were suffering.

Israel has vowed unprecedented retaliation against the Palestinian militant group Hamas after its terrorists stormed through the Gaza border on Saturday.

They went on to kill hundreds, including babies, in their homes, on streets and at a music festival.

The Jewish state has launched a barrage of air strikes on the territory and stopped food, water, fuel and medicine supplies.

The violence has already claimed at least 2,100 lives on both sides, with fears it could escalate further.

A Palace spokesman said: "This is a situation His Majesty is extremely concerned about and he has asked to be kept actively updated. His thoughts and prayers are with all of those suffering, particularly those who have lost loved ones, but also those actively involved as we speak."

He added: "His Majesty is appalled by and condemns the barbaric acts of terrorism in Israel."

'Proudly distressed'

The King, 74, spoke to Israel's president, Isaac Herzog, and King Abdullah of Jordan yesterday, to express condolences and try to encourage key Middle East players to avoid a wider confrontation.

Sources close to the King stressed his lifelong efforts to encourage inter-faith and community dialogue, peace and understanding, both nationally and internationally.

He is supported by Prince William, 41, who visited the Holy Land in 2018, and wife Kate.

A spokesman for the Prince and Princess of Wales said the couple were "profoundly distressed by the devastating events that have unfolded in the past days" and "the horrors inflicted by Hamas's terrorist attack upon Israel are appalling – they utterly condemn them".

The spokesman added: "Their Royal Highnesses hold all the victims, their families and their friends in their hearts and minds.

BBC blasted

"Those the Prince met in 2018 overwhelmingly shared a common hope – that of a better future.

"In the midst of such terrible suffering, the Prince and Princess continue to share that hope without reservation."

As Prince of Wales, Charles made his first official tour of Israel and the occupied territories in 2020.

He also visited the Jerusalem grave of his grandmother, Princess Alice, who offered

UNITY: the Israeli flag projected onto 10 Downing Street on Monday night refuge to Jews in Nazi-occupied Athens during the Second World War.

The royals' support for Israel came as the BBC faced fury for telling its journalists not to use the word "terrorists", citing its impartiality rules. Reporters were left to describe the killers as "militants".

Chief Rabbi Sir Ephraim Mirvis warned the BBC that purposefully avoiding describing Hamas as terrorists "is to wilfully mislead".

He said: "I call upon broadcasters to urgently change the way they describe Hamas.

"Further, I call upon all decent people to have the courage to call out this terror for what it is."

Defence Secretary Grant Shapps told the BBC it was time to get a "moral compass" and pointed out Hamas was classed as a terror organisation in the UK.

He said: "I think it is verging on disgraceful, this idea that there is some sort of equivalence.

"It's remarkable to go to the BBC website and still see them talking about gunmen and militants and not calling them terrorists. I don't know what's going on there, but I think that it's time to get the moral compass out at the BBC."

News from Britain

Ten UK citizens confirmed dead in Hamas massacre

“Our little brother Nathanel was tragically killed on the Gaza Border...He was so happy and thriving in Israel. He loved the country.”

A ‘heartbroken’ Brit has confirmed that his brother was among those killed in Israel after it was revealed ten UK citizens are feared dead or missing as a result of the Hamas massacre.

Scot Bernard Cowan, 57, from Newton Mearns near Glasgow, was among the hundreds who have been killed since Hamas terrorists launched a surprise attack on Saturday morning and in turn started ‘war’ with Israel.

His brother Colin Cowan revealed the tragic news in a statement on social media on Tuesday, posting: ‘Yesterday my brother was murdered by the terrorist Hamas, he was the kindest, most generous person you would ever meet, and would go out of his way to help others.’

Also among the dead was British-born Israeli soldier Nathanel Young, 20, a former pupil at the Jewish Free School, a comprehensive in North London, who was serving in the 13th Battalion of the Israel Defence Forces and died on the Gaza border.

He was the first confirmed British victim of the worst violence in the region for decades after Palestinian militants launched Saturday’s cross-border dawn raids.

Other victims include Jake Marlowe, a carpenter and part-time security guard who attended the same school as Mr. Young. Mr Marlowe was working at a dance festival held near Kibbutz Re’im, close to the Gaza Strip in southern Israel, where some 260 bodies have been found.

haunting voice memo

Mr Marlowe moved to Israel in 2021 and worked as a carpenter in the northern city of Ma’alot.

Life-long friend Daniel Aboudy, who went to nursery, primary and secondary school with Mr Marlowe, said: “Even in the last moments at this event, when there were signals of rockets coming over and terrorists coming in, he tried to help people evacuate.”

Mr Marlowe left his childhood friend a brief haunting voice memo on his phone. It said: “Things are going on around Gaza, they’re coming in from there, we are telling everyone to get out.”

Jake Marlowe: “He was a massive fan of Israel, he was thriving there and living his best life.”

Explaining why his friend made the move from the UK to Israel, Aboudy said Jake had become increasingly interested in genealogy, and learning about his roots, combined with observing a spike in antisemitism in the UK, prompted him to reconsider where his future lay.

“He hadn’t been to Israel for about 10 years. He realised, this is where I belong [and] he made the move in November 2021... Jake was happy living his life the way it was, it was simple, he was seeking out adventure. He was a massive fan of Israel, he was thriving there and living his best life.”

The fourth confirmed victim was Danny Darlington, 35, a photographer who had moved to Germany but was visiting friends in Israel with his German girlfriend Carolin Bohl. The couple were due to leave their accommodation the night before the wave of brutal Hamas attacks.

“life of the party”

But Danny, 35, who lived in Berlin, and Carolin decided to extend their stay to explore Nir Oron, a kibbutz in the south of the country close to the border with Gaza.

That was one of the first communities targeted when Hamas terrorists stormed the border early on Saturday morning.

Danny’s sister Shelley wrote on social media: “My baby brother Dan was murdered by terrorists alongside his beautiful friend Carolin.

“Only days before, he was riding his bike, laughing, taking –photographs of sunsets

‘STRONG JEWISH PRIDE’: Nathaniel Young, 20, of North London, was serving with the Israel Defence Force on the Gaza border and enjoying life’s simple pleasures.

“He was meant to leave for Tel Aviv the night before but decided to stay one more day to explore the kibbutz – a decision that has changed all our lives forever and one that cost him his life. Our community has been destroyed.”

Ms Bohl’s sister Anja Pasquesi added: “We are broken and are working to cope with this unimaginable tragedy.”

Mr Young was living in military accommodation for lone soldiers in Ra’anana. His family shared a post on Facebook saying they were “heartbroken” at his death.

The tribute read: “Our little brother Nathanel was tragically killed on the Gaza Border.

“Nathanel was the life of the party – he carried the nickname DJ on base. He loved his family and friends and was loved by everyone. He loved music and was a talented DJ. An amazing uncle and brother.

“He was so happy and thriving in Israel. He loved the country.”

His brother Eliot said: “Nathanel always had strong Jewish pride. From a young age, he has always wanted to play an important role in defending his country – it’s something he talked about a lot.”

Labour MP: our empire did this

A LEFT-wing MP said at a Labour conference rally this week that Britons who want to bring peace to warring tribes in the Middle East have a “colonial mentality”.

Joining ex-Shadow Chancellor John McDonnell at a Speaking for Palestine event, Bell Ribeiro-Addy said Britain is partly to blame for the bloodshed after its “betrayal, duplicity, oppression and discrimination”. The MP for Streatham added that the “rubble of empire [is] all around us” and claimed Tory politicians recently talked of “creating Empire 2.0”.

Elsewhere, shadow cabinet minister Afzal Khan apologized after posing at a Palestinian Solidarity Campaign stall, then added: “I unequivocally condemn the terrorist actions of Hamas.”

London Police on alert as anti-Semitism fears grow

■ Home Secretary vows to crack down on pro-Palestine demonstrations as Hamas attack is celebrated in London and Manchester

HUNDREDS of police were deployed to Jewish communities in the UK early this week amid fears “Islamists and other racists” will stir up hatred.

Home Secretary Suella Braverman declared anyone celebrating Hamas atrocities in Israel must face “the full force of the law”.

She demanded police adopt a “zero tolerance for anti-Semitism or glorification of terrorism on the streets of Britain”.

Numerous videos have emerged on social media of people celebrating the attacks by Hamas militants early on Saturday.

One witness, Charlotte Proudman, described it as “quite possibly the most heinous act of public hate I have seen on the streets of London”.

And on Sunday rallies in London and Manchester saw crowds waving Palestinian flags while a large poster read “Glory to Palestinians – Freedom Fighters”.

Scotland Yard has confirmed extra police officers have been deployed to areas with a large Jewish population.

And Mark Gardner, of Community Security Trust, said police in other areas were following suit.

More than 300 British politicians on Monday vowed to protect “the UK’s vibrant Jewish population”.

The Met is coming under increasing pressure to go further and arrest those celebrating the deaths and kidnappings of Israeli civilians for supporting a terrorist organisation.

‘zero tolerance’

Mrs Braverman warned: “Whenever Israel is attacked, Islamists and other racists use Israeli defensive measures as a pretext to stir up hatred against British Jews.”

“There must be zero tolerance for anti-Semitism or glorification of terrorism on the streets of Britain.”

“I expect the police to use the full force of the law against displays of support for Hamas, other proscribed terrorist groups or attempts to intimidate British Jews.”

Home Office sources said there are “plenty of offences” officers can use to charge people celebrating the deaths of innocents and the kidnapping of dozens of hostages.

One minister said: “Hamas is a proscribed terrorist organisation. Supporting them in the UK is a criminal offence”.

As the horrors emerged on Saturday, some people celebrated by draping their cars in Palestinian flags and driving through London, blaring their horns. Others took to social media to praise the terrorists.

Countdown presenter Rachel Riley said “this is a dangerous and terrifying time for all Jews around the world”.

She added: “I just passed two cars in West London driving with Palestinian flags flying from each window, bouncing up and down in their cars, seemingly celebrating like they were having a party.”

‘safe and secure’

Shadow Health Secretary Wes Streeting said: “It’s terrorism and our country’s got to stand against it. I think police need to look at whether crimes are being committed here.”

“People celebrating on the streets of London and elsewhere in the UK need to ask themselves, where is their humanity?”

On Monday several thousand people attended an emergency protest outside the Israeli embassy in London Monday evening to show their solidarity with the Palestinians and oppose the Israeli onslaught on Gaza. A high proportion of young people and families, many with links to Palestine or the wider Middle East, took part.

They were met by a heavy police presence including ranks of police vans and armed officers. The event passed off mostly peacefully, with only three arrests.

On Monday night

Flares and cheers: pro-Palestinian demonstrators in West London on Saturday

No10 projected an image of the Israeli flag on Downing Street, saying Rishi Sunak had spoken to Israeli premier Benjamin Netanyahu. “He reaffirmed that the UK will stand with Israel unequivocally against these acts of terror.” The PM had offered any support Israel needs.

The spokesman added: “The Prime Minister also stressed his commitment to ensuring the Jewish community in the UK feels safe and secure at this time.”

More than 300 British politicians have sent an unprecedented letter of support to Mr Netanyahu.

The letter, signed by a dozen Cabinet ministers, said: “We welcome the UK’s strong condemnation of Hamas’s barbaric attack and pledge to protect the UK’s vibrant Jewish community.”

Uproar over plans to keep serious criminals out of jail

Fury has greeted a plan to temporarily stop sending rapists and burglars to jail – as prisons are full.

Lord Edis, senior presiding judge for England and Wales, is said to have ordered a delay to the sentencing of convicted criminals currently on bail from next week.

One senior judge commented: “We have been told that this is a ‘short-term measure’ but nobody knows what that means.”

They added that the “biggest concern” was defendants charged with historic rape or rape of a child under 13 and other sexual assaults, who, even if convicted, are now likely to remain on bail.

Women’s groups were furious – Ellen Miller, interim head of Refuge, called the reports “outrageous”.

She added: “This year the Government vowed to treat violence against women and girls (VAWG) as a national threat, making it a strategic policing priority and placing it on the same footing as terrorism.”

The prison population in England and Wales was 88,016 last Friday, close to the capacity of 88,670.

backlog of cases

Ministry of Justice officials issued a report this year predicting inmate totals are set to hit 94,400 by spring 2025 and 106,000 by 2027.

Crown courts, which host trials for the most serious offences, continue to struggle with a rising backlog of cases – now at a record high of nearly 63,000.

Claire Waxman, London’s Victims Commissioner, wrote online: “The justice system in this country is officially broken if judges are now told not to jail convicted criminals as prisons are full.

“A convicted rapist could be back in the community, free to re-offend, leaving victims and public at risk.”

The senior judge added: “What am I going to do if a jury finds someone guilty [of rape]? Do I release that person who is now convicted back into the community where the victim might see them? What will the victim think?”

Justice Secretary Alex Chalk has said ministers would change the law to let prisoners sentenced in England and Wales serve their terms overseas. Legislation plans are to be included in next month’s King’s Speech.

Andrea Albutt, Prison Governors Association president, declared last month it was “common sense” that the Government would have to consider early release for thousands of inmates. She added: “The fact is we’re over-crowded to the ‘nth’ degree and there is no capacity left. Once we are full, we are full. We are reaching the critical point. The point of no return. In the adult male estate, there are only a few hundred spaces left and that will be consumed in the next couple of weeks.”

A jail is ruled to be over-crowded if the total of its inmates exceeds the Certified Normal Accommodation. The CNA, set by the Prison Service, is the number of spaces available for prisoners under a decent standard of accommodation whereas operational capacity is the absolute maximum that can fit. Planning delays mean an extra 20,000 places due in the mid-2020s are not expected to be ready before 2030 now.

Wake Up Saudi, Rod’s got somethin’ to say

SIR Rod Stewart has turned down a huge deal from Saudi Arabia due to the country’s record on human rights.

The star was offered one of the biggest pay cheques of his career to perform in the country. But he rejected the offer over the Arab state’s discrimination of women and LGBTQ people, and the silencing of its critics.

Sir Rod, 78, said: “I’m grateful that I have a choice whether or not to perform in Saudi Arabia.

“So many citizens there have extremely limited choices: women, the LGBTQ community, the press. I’d like my choice not to go... to shine a light on the injustices there and ignite positive change.”

A source close to the rocker said that he had used his “moral compass in making the decision”.

STEWART: “I’m grateful that I have a choice whether or not to perform in Saudi Arabia.”

They added: “Rod was determined to do the right thing and couldn’t accept the offer, no matter how much money was on the table. Some things are more important.”

Father-of-eight Sir Rod previously told how he had also rejected £1million to play in neighbouring Qatar.

The Maggie May singer’s team did not reveal how much he was offered this time, but it is understood to be “much higher.”

Same-sex sexual activity is illegal in Saudi Arabia, with the death penalty a possible punishment.

There have also been “consistent reports of discrimination and violence” against LGBTQ+ people, according to Human Rights Watch.

Shipwreck thieves to be marked men

DIVERS have begun to use secret marking technology to deter thefts from historic shipwrecks.

Cannons are among significant artefacts being given the traceable tags for the first time in the UK.

Mark Harrison, head of heritage crime strategy at environment guardians Historic England, said: “This will act as a clear deterrent to those looking to unlawfully lift and remove historic material from protected wreck sites.

“If someone breaks the law and removes any property, the new markings will give police the ability to link the offender to the crime.”

Forensic markers will be applied to some of

Easy to plunder: the UK coastline is home to an estimated 37,000 shipwrecks the 57 Protected Wreck Sites in English waters including the 17th century Dutch warship Klein Hollandia, nine miles south-east of Beachy Head, East Sussex.

Mark Beattie Edwards, head of the Nautical Archaeology Society and licensee of the site, said: “Being so far off-shore, it is vulnerable to illegal visits. This new technology will give us peace of mind.”

Most underwater heritage crime involves thefts of valuable metal artefacts from wrecks and this year marks the 50th anniversary of the Protection of Wrecks Act.

Euro 2028: Football's coming home (again)

THERE was celebration in the streets of Britain and Ireland this week after the two countries were confirmed as the hosts of the Euro 28 football tournament.

The festival of football is set to provide a £2.6billion boost as millions flock to the UK and Ireland, bringing a bonanza of business for pubs, restaurants and hotels with 24 teams competing in 10 venues across one month from June.

FA chief executive Mark Bullingham saluted a "brilliant day" for the UK and Ireland after being confirmed as hosts, promising a glittering national event.

Ten venues have been confirmed in nine cities and governing body Uefa has agreed for the first time that fan zones can be created in centres not hosting games – such as Bristol, Brighton and Edinburgh – so more people can get involved.

Cardiff's Principality Stadium is set to stage the opening match with the semi-finals and final taking place at Wembley.

It will be the first time Wales, the Republic of Ireland or Northern Ireland have hosted matches of a major international tournament.

But Northern Ireland's contribution to the bid - Belfast's Casement Park - does not yet exist.

Plans to redevelop of the ground into a modern 34,000 capacity stadium have been on the table for more than 10 years - but political instability, issues behind the scenes and planning permission U-turns combined to keep the bulldozers off site. It is expected the project will now be green-lit and turbocharged to make the 2028 deadline.

The tournament will be the biggest sporting spectacle staged in the UK since the London 2012 Olympic Games. Wembley hosted seven games in the men's pandemic-delayed Euro 2020 two years ago, which was shared across 12 countries. This included the final where England were beaten by Italy on penalties.

Being chosen as hosts of the Euro 28 tournament underlines the quality of the nations' stadiums and globally-renowned hospitality, declared Culture and Sport Secretary Lucy Frazer.

Savoring UEFA's decision, which was a certainty ever since Turkey withdrew from bidding for the event earlier this month, Ms Frazer said: "Few countries in the world can rival the UK's track record of hosting major sporting occasions and

Harry Kane, Rishi Sunak and Gareth Southgate were among those celebrating the success of the UK and Ireland bid to host the Euro 2028 tournament events.

"We always rise to the occasion – a country that lives for these major moments."

It comes just two months after England suffered heartbreak in the Women's World Cup Final in Sydney when they lost to Spain.

But their exploits united the country and a proud Prince William, President of the Football Association, told the players: "Although it's the result none of us wanted, you have done yourselves and this nation proud. Your spirit and drive have inspired so many people and paved the way for generations to come. Thank you for the footballing memories." A similar fervour will surround the tournament in five years' time.

Hosting the tournament is also expected to give the game's grassroots a huge boost. As a result of the Lionesses' success there are now 100,000 more girls playing football in England than in 2017.

New firm takes on Eurostar

A RAIL company aiming to compete with Eurostar in the Channel Tunnel has agreed to buy at least 12 trains.

Evolyn said £1billion is being invested to start cross-Channel services in 2025.

The company said it is led by the Spanish Cosmen family – an investor in coach and train company Mobicco, formerly known as National Express.

It has agreed to acquire 12 trains from French manufacturer Alstom, with an "option to scale up to 16".

Evolyn boss Jorge

Cosmen said: "We know the governments of the UK and France welcome a project to allow their citizens to increase the connection options."

Eurostar is the only firm to run passenger trains since the Channel Tunnel opened in 1994.

St Andrew's Society gears up for busy Samhain season

■ Highland Games come to Ventura Fairgrounds next weekend

WITH THE nights drawing in and with each passing day getting shorter, it's clear that Fall is upon us, even in sunny California. Back home Scotland is gearing up for Samhain, the Celtic festival often associated with those who have taken the 'low road' back to Scotland. The ancient Celts, in general, believed in the afterlife. Samhain was a time of celebration and often coincides with our festivities that celebrate the 'otherworld' - All Hallow's Eve! October happens to be one of the busiest months for the St. Andrew's Society of Los Angeles, with plans shaping up for their annual St. Andrew's Day Brunch (Dec 2) at the Altadena Country Club and their legendary Robert Burns Dinner (Jan 27) at the Four Seasons in Beverly Hills. Not to mention the Seaside

Highland Games in Ventura, (Oct 14 & 15) and their New Members Reception at the Tam O'Shanter (Oct 28) in Los Feliz. The Saint Andrews society has long been known as the premier source of Scottish culture in all of Southern California, so for those contemplating joining next week's Highland Games are the perfect opportunity to meet and enjoy others who share

Price of iconic Wings tour bus expected to soar at local auction

THE psychedelic open-top bus used by Paul McCartney and Wings to tour Europe is tipped to sell for $300,000 after a three-year restoration. It will be sold by Julien's Auctions on Canon Drive in Beverly Hills on November 16th. The 1953 KSW double-decker had previously taken passengers around Bristol.

Sir Paul bought it in 1972, the year he recorded Live and Let Die. It took the band and their families 7,500 miles to 25 gigs in nine countries.

Its eye-catching design of the sun and mountains was painted by Geoffrey Cleghorn. In 2017 it was bought by businessman Tom Creaven-Jennings. He paid for the bus and its Gardner 5LW 7-litre engine to be rebuilt at a workshop in Essex - including the wooden bunk beds Paul and wife Linda's children used.

Fare price?: the bus is expected to fetch $300,000

After it was found decaying on Tenerife

It is being sold by Julien's Auctions of Los Angeles on November 16. The firm has called the vehicle a "caravan of pure magic and love".

Stargazing with Annie Shaw

ARIES: Now is a good time to put your financial goals at the top of your to-do list. Do not think that because it's been quiet for a while that you should procrastinate.

TAURUS: You are likely feeling concerned about your future finances right now. This is understandable considering how many expenses you have had of late. Take a look at your life now compared to last month.

GEMINI: Make time to get up and get going as your boss Mercury is going forward now. It will be good to just focus on things a day at a time. Do not procrastinate or overindulge this week ahead.

CANCER: Your moods can change quickly now so it's good that you are mostly low key. You have some stuff from the past coming up next week. Take care of it swiftly - it is for your highest good.

LEO: You should be starting to process and understand things in your life from your distant past. Time to let go of old hurts...possibly from childhood.

VIRGO: Do not push too hard, let yourself breathe and relax. You are the biggest worrier of all the signs. Now is the time to show your organized side to those that need your help.

LIBRA: You can expect to receive financial surprises these next few days. Mercury is in your money house going forward and can bring some new opportunities. Happy Birthday!

SCORPIO: Remember to heed your intuition now. It is best to be cautious how you deal emotionally with past situations and people. How you process the feelings is crucial now.

SAGITTARIUS: It's not currently a time to be self-indulgent or down-hearted. You are the free spirit of the signs and while your boss Jupiter is currently in Aquarius something good will transpire soon.

CAPRICORN: It's time to lighten your outlook about any situation currently. Your boss Saturn is in your money house for a while and so it is lucky for you financially. Nothing can stop your positive intentions.

AQUARIUS: It's a good time to set your intentions and be ready to move on them as soon as you can.

You are somewhat resistant to changes so relax.

PISCES: Don't look backwards just look up and at what you want to turn out to be enjoyable. Keep your distance as much as possible from outside your own circle for a while.

The undersigned or its predecessor caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (844) 477-7869 or visit this Internet Web site WWW.STOXPOSTING.COM, using the file number assigned to this case 112293-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: Effective January 1, 2021, you may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (855) 313-3319, or visit this internet website www.clearconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 112293-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Jaime Jofre Espinoza be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF: KIM HANSIS CASE NO. 23STPB11016

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of KIM HANSIS.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by SCOTT HANSIS in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that SCOTT HANSIS be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act with limited authority. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 11/08/23 at 8:30AM in Dept. 9 located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012 IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Attorney for Petitioner LORI A. Rugby World Cup: doubts grow as England squeak past Samoa

England's Maro Itoje has demanded honest conversations after his team barely won their final group stage match and lost crucial momentum in their quest to win the World Cup.

On Sunday they face a quarter-final against Fiji, who are ranked six places above Samoa, whom England edged 17-16 at the weekend. Worse, the Fiji were winners at Twickenham less than seven weeks ago but their shock defeat against Portugal on Sunday will go some way to salve English embarrassment at their Samoan squeaker.

England are one of only four teams still unbeaten in Rugby Union's biggest event, but looking miles off the standards set by Andy Farrell's Ireland, not to mention France, South Africa and New Zealand.

Head coach Steve Borthwick has brought in Sam Underhill for the injured Jack Willis – reuniting the 'kamikaze kids' breakdown combo with Tom Curry that took the nation to the 2019 final.

But Itoje knows England have their work cut out to replicate that level of achievement without a major gear shift.

"There will be some honest conversations," the Saracen said. "They're necessary if you want to move forward. This is not about being hunky dory.

"If there's a problem, if there's something that needs to be fixed, we need to fix it.

"That wasn't the performance we wanted. We need to improve, we need to get better."

England won only because Danny Care, 36, rescued them with a late try and then got back to make the tackle that prevented them giving it straight back to Samoa.

In all other aspects, England ranged from ordinary to hapless. But for a highly contentious TMO intervention they would have lost.

Itoje said the players would watch the game individually and "start having conversations between ourselves" before a "full-bore team meeting" to which everyone would be required to contribute.

"Steve will go through the facts," Itoje added.

"The facts of the game, what happened and why. It has to be honest.

"We've had a number of pretty awkward and tough conversations and meetings over the past three, four months as a squad.

"They are necessary if you want to move forward."

A match supposed to provide answers posed only questions as dusting down the Owen Farrell-George Ford axis after two-and-a-half years failed to produce the edge required. Farrell might have overtaken Jonny Wilkinson to become England's record points scorer but he was timed out on a kick at goal and forced others – Manu Tuilagi and Joe Marchant – to play out of position.

With two playmakers England lacked the 'quarter-back' focus Ford brought against Argentina and Matthieu Jalibert brings to every game France play.

Without that, defence and discipline are their only weapons – and against Samoa both of those misfired.

The dynamic Pacific Islanders breached England's try line four times in the second quarter alone – even if two were chalked off, one highly controversially.

"Some times performances likes that sharpen the senses," Itoje said. "And the hope, the ambition, is that this will sharpen us up for what's to come next."

Welsh progress to quarter-final 'was the least we expected', says Rowlands

Wales have marched into the Rugby World Cup quarter finals, which was "minimum standard" for the team according to standout player Will Rowlands.

Warren Gatland's men reached the knockout stages for a fourth successive tournament and will face Argentina in Marseille on Saturday.

Wales start as favourites after topping Pool C, securing a last-eight place with a game to spare.

It is all a far cry from last season's Six Nations, when Wales only avoided the wooden spoon by beating Italy.

Second-row Rowlands said: "There has been a lot of confidence in the squad about what we want to do. It feels really exciting, we want to keep going in the tournament. For us, it was the minimum standard to get to this stage.

"We were confident that if we played the right game plan, got the right players going in the right direction, then we knew we could beat other teams. We have proved that."

Wales have injury concerns over fly-halves Gareth Anscombe and Dan Biggar, plus full-back Liam Williams. Taulupe Faletau is out of the tournament with a broken arm.

But in-form Louis Rees-Zammit is fit and a certain starter. The winger has already scored five tries in the tournament, including a hat-trick against Georgia, to leave him one behind France's Damian Penaud.

Last gasp Spain force Scots to wait

■ Late double robs Scotland of early Euro 2024 qualification

Scotland's bid to reach Euro 2024 was agonisingly prolonged after suffering their first defeat of the campaign on a frustrating night in Spain on Thursday.

Needing a point to reach consecutive European Championships, a combination of steely focus, last-ditch blocks and some Spanish profligacy was eventually cancelled out by Alvaro Morata's ghosting run and header deep into the second half.

Just minutes earlier Scott McTominay triggered revelry among the Scots as he lashed a wonderous free-kick past Unai Simon, only for the goal to be ruled out after a VAR review.

Scotland's anguish would be compounded in the closing moments as Spain grabbed a second via a Ryan Porteous own goal.

Scotland, who lost captain Andy Robertson to injury in the first half, sit top of Group A, three points above their hosts, and can still qualify for Euro 2024 on Sunday if Norway fail to beat the in-form Spanish.

Or, if needed, they can get the job done next month when they travel to Georgia for their penultimate game.

Scotland left the pitch to a rapturous reception from a huge travelling support in Spain. This had all the hallmarks of a famous night, only for it to be laced with the harshest of sucker punches.

Scotland's challenge at the start of the evening? Take a point, or hope Norway would drop the ball in Cyprus. The latter always looked unlikely - so it proved as Norway eased to a 4-0 win - and from kick-off in the sweltering Seville heat, the heft of the task facing the Scots was evident.

Spain are far from the husk of a side who wilted at Hampden. Barcelona's Ferran Torres steered a shot wide when through on Angus Gunn after just a minute.

A series of corners somehow flew across the Scotland goal, which was starting to lead a charmed life. None more so than when Mikel Merino's slashed shot hit a post, flew between goalkeeper and line, before spinning out.

The booming gasp which met that Merino

Alvaro Morata's opener stunned Scotland after McTominay's free kick was ruled out chance was loud, but nothing compared to the roar midway through the second half courtesy of McTominay.

On a rare chance for a Scotland shot at goal, the Manchester United midfielder, the thorny thistle in the La Roja side in March, whipped a glorious free-kick high into the far corner from a tight angle.

But jubilation turned to jaw-smacking agony as VAR intervened and the goal was ruled out, initially, it seemed, for a foul by Jack Hendry on the goalkeeper.

That was what the flashed up on the screens in the stadium, but Uefa later said it was because Hendry was offside and interfering with play.

Confusion reigned and the debate about that whole process will linger unless and until Scotland have booked their place in Germany.

Rooney has agreed a deal with Birmingham City until 2027

Wazza aims for the big time with Brum

Wayne Rooney believes Birmingham City belong in the Premier League and says that his aim is to "make that happen".

The former England captain, 37, was appointed the Championship club's new manager on a three-and-a-half-year contract on Wednesday.

Rooney said he was "intrigued" and "excited" by the opportunity he now has at St Andrew's.

He told BBC Radio: "I want to build Birmingham back up - really get it back to where it belongs. It's a huge club."

"It hasn't been where I think I should it have been over the last 10 years and now this is a challenge and an opportunity to get it back there."

Rooney's appointment is the first made by Blues' new American owners Shelby Companies Limited (SCL), who took over in July and ended head coach John Eustace's 15-month spell in charge on Monday.

SCL is a subsidiary of Birmingham owners Knighthead Capital Management LLC, who welcomed seven-time Super Bowl champion Tom Brady as a minority owner of the club in August.
