RAF LAUNCH AIR STRIKES ON HOUTHIS

■ UK Typhoon jets hit bases in Yemen in joint operation with US

The UK has launched air strikes against Houthi targets in Yemen for the first time since US President Donald Trump returned to the White House.

The Ministry of Defence (MoD) said Royal Air Force (RAF) Typhoon fighter jets, working with the US, hit a "cluster of buildings" used by the Houthis to manufacture attack drones this week.

Since November 2023, the Houthis - a rebel group in control of much of Yemen - have been carrying out attacks on ships in the Red Sea, which the US has responded to by leading a bombing campaign designed to weaken the group.

of its aggression", according to a statement published by Houthi-run Al Masirah TV.

These are the first RAF air strikes on Houthi targets in Yemen approved by Sir Keir Starmer's government - and the first direct UK participation in US-led strikes since Trump was re-elected.

Defence Secretary John Healy said the strikes were successful and carried out to protect British and international shipping.

In a statement, he said all UK personnel and aircraft had returned safely to base.

"A 55% drop in shipping through the Red Sea has already cost billions, fuelling regional instability and risking economic security for families in the UK," he continued.

The MoD said the strikes were carried out after a drone production facility was identified around 15 miles (24km) south of Yemen's capital Saana.

It said the strikes were carried out using "precision guided bombs" after "very careful planning" to hit targets "with minimal risk to civilians or non-military infrastructure".

tribute

They were launched at night "when the likelihood of any civilians being in the area was reduced yet further", the MoD added.

Speaking in the House of Commons on Wednesday, Healy said the government's "initial assessment is that the planned targets were all successfully hit and we've seen no evidence of civilian casualties".

Earlier in the Commons, Prime Minister Sir Keir Starmer paid tribute to the "professionalism and bravery of all our service men and service women".

The US military has launched hundreds of strikes against Houthi targets in recent weeks - claiming to have killed hundreds of fighters, including leaders of the group and commanders overseeing drone and missile production.

BBC damaged my reputation, claims Gerry Adams

■ Former Sinn Féin leader seeks damages in Dublin High Court for 'defamatory' 2016 TV program

Gerry Adams' reputation as a peacemaker suffered "an unjustified attack" by the BBC, which wrongly alleged he sanctioned the murder of informer Denis Donaldson in 2006, the High Court in Dublin has been told.

The claim was made by a lawyer for Mr Adams who is suing the broadcaster for defamation.

He said the BBC had committed a "journalistic no-no" by relying on unverified claims made by an anonymous single source.

The former Sinn Féin president believes he was defamed in a 2016 programme and online article which, he claims, wrongly alleged he sanctioned the murder of an informer, Denis Donaldson.

'reckless journalism'

Mr Donaldson, who had worked for Sinn Féin, was shot dead in Donegal in 2006, months after admitting his role as a police and MI5 agent for 20 years.

Mr Adams, 76, denies any involvement.

In 2009, the Real IRA admitted killing Mr Donaldson.

Mr Adams' lawyer claimed the BBC did not meet the thresholds of responsible journalism – it presented "no verifiable evidence" to support the allegation.

He said: "Many people say many things about Gerry Adams and he may have sued before, but over time he has let matters go, usually on legal advice.

"But he wasn't willing to let this matter pass."

"It wasn't responsible journalism, it was reckless journalism," the lawyer added.

In his opening remarks to the jury, Mr Justice Alexander Owens outlined several matters of law which he said could be relevant for the jury.

He said "one of the issues, maybe the big issue" was whether the allegedly defamatory words were a "fair and reasonable publication on a matter of public interest".

He said it was up to the BBC to prove this if it were to be used as a defence.

Mr Adams also alleges he was defamed in a BBC online article based on the broadcast, a BBC NI Spotlight TV documentary, which contained claims made by an anonymous source.

his reputation was damaged.

The case is expected to last a number of weeks.

During pre-trial hearings, the BBC argued the broadcast and publication were put out in good faith and concerned a matter of public interest.

Houthis:

Houthi-run authorities have claimed the strikes have killed dozens of civilians, but have reported few casualties among the group's members.

On Monday, they reported at least 68 African migrants killed in a US air strike on a detention centre in north-western Yemen.

Casualty reports could not be immediately verified, but Al Masirah TV's videos showed first responders recovering the bodies of at least a dozen men.

Since November 2023, the Iran-backed Houthis have targeted dozens of merchant vessels with missiles, drones and small boat attacks in the Red Sea and the Gulf of Aden.

They have sunk two vessels, seized a third, and killed four crew members.

The Houthis have said they are acting in support of the Palestinians in the war between Israel and Hamas in Gaza, and have claimed - often falsely - that they are targeting ships only linked to Israel, the US or the UK.

The Houthi authorities said the most recent strikes were in response to "Israel's war and genocide in Gaza".

It added that "no matter the challenges" the group will resist the "trio of evil" - the US, UK and Israel - and their allies.

In March, Trump ordered an intensification of the bombing campaign, and two US aircraft carriers have been deployed to the region.

RAF jets have participated in US-led airstrikes before, but under the last Conservative government and when President Joe Biden was in power.

Earlier this year, an RAF tanker aircraft was deployed to refuel US warplanes.

Record heat for May 1st

The UK recorded its hottest ever May Day on Thursday, having just experienced its sunniest April since records began, according to the Met Office.

The unprecedented temperature of 29.3 degrees Celsius (84.7 degrees Fahrenheit) was recorded at the famous botanical park Kew Gardens in southwest London.

The previous record of 27.4C (81.3F) was set in 1990 in the coastal town of Lossiemouth in northern Scotland.

This May 1 is also the hottest day of the year so far in the country.

Like other European countries, the UK has been experiencing a heat-wave since the beginning of the week.

According to early estimates from the Met Office, April was the sunniest since meteorological records began in 1910.

It was also the third warmest, with an average temperature of 9.6C (49.2F) - 1.7C above the long-term average.

"The sun is as strong as it usually is in August," said Met meteorologist Aidan McGivern.

The high temperatures and dry conditions have led to numerous fires across the country.

On Thursday, a fire broke out in West Yorkshire in northern England, adding to the more than 400 fires recorded in the country so far this year, according to the National Fire Chiefs Council.

Over a hundred blazes have scorched more than 30 hectares (74 acres) of forests, according to data from the European Forest Fire Information System.

Scientists warn that climate change driven by humanity's fossil fuel emissions is making periods of intense heat more likely, longer-lasting and more intense.

Tariffs set to slow UK growth

BRITAIN'S economic growth could slow sharply over the next two years as US tariffs weigh heavily on spending and investment, forecasters predict.

Recovery from a period of stagnant growth will be directly hampered by Donald Trump's tariff plans, according to the EY Item Club, a leading UK economic forecasting group.

About 16% of UK goods exports go to the US, meaning new tariffs will directly impact growth by squashing demand for products, the group said.

But the bigger hit is set to come from the indirect impact of the new policy on a weaker global economic backdrop and spiralling levels of uncertainty.

This is predicted to weigh on consumers who remain in a "cautious mood" and will continue putting big spending decisions on hold.

Businesses are also expected to limit the amount they are investing over the next two years.

EY said it now expected the UK's GDP to grow by 0.8% this year, down from the 1% projected in February.

It also slashed its forecast for 2026 from 1.6% to 0.9% as the longer-term effects filter through to the economy.

Economic growth will then rebound to reach 1.5% in 2027.

EY said the Bank of England is likely to stick to its gradual approach to cutting interest rates, which should reduce to 3.75% by the end of the year, from the current 4.5%.

Anna Anthony, of EY, said: "Over time, the unpredictable global landscape may offer opportunities for the UK to position itself as a stable, attractive destination for investment."

FA bans transgender women from the sport

Move comes following the UK Supreme Court's ruling on 15 April • Cricket expected to follow

Transgender women will no longer be able to play in women's football in England from 1 June, the Football Association has announced.

It amended its rules on 11 April, applying stricter eligibility criteria for transgender women to continue playing in women's football at all levels.

However, following the UK Supreme Court's ruling on 15 April that the legal definition of a woman is based on biological sex, the FA has scrapped that policy and says only those born biologically female will be permitted to play.

"This is a complex subject, and our position has always been that if there was a material change in law, science, or the operation of the policy in grassroots football then we would review it and change it if necessary," the FA said.

The FA has offered those players banned from competing free therapy with the Sporting Chance charity, which provides sportspeople with mental health support.

FINAL WHISTLE: there are no registered transgender women in the professional game

"We understand that this will be difficult for people who simply want to play the game they love in the gender by which they identify, and we are contacting the registered transgender women currently playing to explain the changes and how they can continue to stay involved in the game."

legal advice

The FA said on Thursday that there were fewer than 30 transgender women registered among millions of amateur players.

There are no registered transgender women in the professional game across the Home Nations.

The Scottish FA on Thursday also announced it was banning transgender women from women's football in Scotland.

The England and Wales Cricket Board (ECB) is expected to follow suit in the next few days.

The ECB has been taking legal advice on its transgender policy following the Supreme Court ruling and is expected to sanction changes to its transgender policy at a board meeting on Friday.

On Thursday England Netball also changed its guidelines by banning transgender women from its female category.

The Football Association of Wales said it would "await further guidance for the sports sector".

medical records

Under amended rules announced on 11 April, the FA said transgender women could continue to participate in women's football provided they met certain criteria.

They would have to prove via medical records that their testosterone levels had been below prescribed levels for at least the past 12 months, and provide a record of hormone therapy and an annual review of treatment.

A new formal process, which would involve a "match observation" by an FA official, would give the FA "ultimate discretion" on a case-by-case basis.

'overdue'

Fiona McAnena, director of campaigns for human rights charity Sex Matters, said the ruling was "overdue" and that the previous policy was "nonsensical".

Former Olympic swimmer Sharron Davies, who has been vocal on the issue of transgender women in women's sport, said on X: "This is great news for the safety and fairness of all our girls and women in football. Should never have been allowed in the first place. Now every sport must follow suit."

Campaign group Women's Rights Network said: "We are pleased that the FA has finally seen the light. But it shouldn't have been such a hard fight to get here."

Asked what Prime Minister Sir Keir Starmer thought of transgender women being banned from women's sport, his spokesman said the government had "been clear that biology matters when it comes to women's sport and that everyone should be compliant with the law".

He said the government would "continue to work to make sure that women and girls across the country can enjoy sports and we will continue to support bodies to protect the integrity, safety and fairness of the game".

He said it was the responsibility of sporting bodies to set their own rules.

We must not let history repeat itself, says Army boss

UK is facing similar scenario to that of the late 1930s, says Lord Dannatt

A former British Army chief has warned "we must not let history repeat itself" as he said the UK is facing a situation similar to the years before the Second World War.

Lord Dannatt said there were "echoes" of the failure to stop Adolf Hitler in the 1930s and that defence spending must increase considerably, as there are "no shortcuts" for security.

He declared: "We have to remember the lessons of history. Back in the 1930s, we failed to either appease or deter Hitler, war broke out and there are echoes of that – aggression by Vladimir Putin's Russia. We've got to make sure we are strong and deter further aggression."

"With Russia's aggression continuing unabated we must remain totally focused on the threats we face."

The retired general, speaking at the unveiling of an art installation for next month's VE Day anniversary, said it was crucial Britain's defences are strong to ensure "we continue to enjoy the peace and freedom that they bought for us 80 years ago".

'quality of life'

He welcomed the Government's decision to increase defence spending to 2.5% of GDP by April 2027 but warned it is not enough.

Lord Dannatt said: "I'm not alone in thinking we should be increasing from the 2.5% to 3 or 3.5%. Back in the days of the Cold War, we were spending 5% of GDP. There's a cost for our freedom and a cost to enjoy the quality of life we have."

Shadow Defence Secretary James Cartledge said: "We've been clear that defence spending will need to rise further and that's why we've called for 3% this Parliament rather than in the next.

"With Russia's aggression continuing unabated we must remain totally focused on the threats we face."

Kemi fury over rap group's Tory death call

Conservative leader Kemi Badenoch has demanded the prosecution of Ulster rap trio Kneecap for allegedly calling for the death of Tory MPs.

Video emerged of the group at a November 2023 gig appearing to show one member saying: "The only good Tory is a dead Tory. Kill your local MP."

Mrs Badenoch said Kneecap's "anti-British hatred has no place in our society" as she called for them to face action.

Scotland Yard is looking into the incident, along with another concert from November 2024 in which a member of the band appeared to shout "up Hamas, up Hezbollah" – groups which are banned as terrorist organisations in the UK.

Mrs Badenoch said it was "good" the police were looking into the allegation, adding: "Kneecap's glorification of terrorism and anti-British hatred has no place in our society. "Now footage shows one of them saying: 'The only good Tory is a dead Tory. Kill your local MP'.

"After the murder of Sir David Amess, this demands prosecution."

Conservative MP Sir David was stabbed to death while meeting constituents in Leigh-on-Sea, Essex, in 2021.

His daughter Katie Amess told reporters: "It is just beyond belief that human beings would speak like that in this day and age and it is extremely dangerous."

She said "to say to kill anybody, what on earth are they thinking", warning there were "absolute nutters" who could try to act upon the comments.

Royal Mail moving into foreign hands

■ £3.6bn takeover led by Czech billionaire approved by shareholders

Royal Mail's £3.6 billion takeover by Czech billionaire Daniel Kretinsky has been passed by its shareholders, paving the way for the more than 500-year-old company to be taken into foreign ownership for the first time.

International Distribution Services (IDS), Royal Mail's owner, first agreed to the acquisition in May last year.

It was cleared by the UK Government in December, but has faced delays as it waited for approval from authorities in Romania amid political upheaval in the country.

Investors holding 80% of the group's share capital had approved the takeover by Wednesday afternoon, making the offer "unconditional."

It needed the approval of at least 75% of the shareholding.

IDS shares are expected to stop trading on the London Stock Exchange by June 2 as the company moves to private ownership.

Mr Kretinsky, founder and chairman of the acquiring company EP, said: "We are delighted to have secured the overwhelming support of IDS's shareholders for our offer."

He said it was committed to "putting employees and customers at the heart of everything IDS does" and in "sharing the fruits of success with employees".

'unique heritage'

"Employees are at the centre of our plans for the business and we know we will only succeed with a clear, shared vision for the future that we can all work towards," he added.

The Royal Mail was this week described as 'one of our country's most iconic and important companies.'

Keith Williams, the chair of IDS, said: "Both the IDS board and EP are acutely aware of the unique heritage of Royal Mail.

"We have been pleased to secure a far-reaching package of legally binding undertakings and commitments, which have been endorsed by Govern-

"These provide our customers, colleagues and broader stakeholders with safeguards for the provision of the universal service obligation, the ongoing financial stability of Royal Mail, the maintenance of colleague benefits, and Royal Mail's broader role in the United Kingdom."

Commitments to protect the universal service obligations, as well as a vow to keep the brand name and headquarters in the UK for the next five years, have formed part of a number of pledges to soothe concerns over the takeover.

Dave Ward, the general secretary of the Communication Workers Union, said: "Today represents a pivotal moment in the history of Royal Mail – one of our country's most iconic and important companies.

"The CWU have reached a groundbreaking agreement with EP Group that provides the platform for a fresh start and the rebuilding of Royal Mail.

"We will not hesitate to challenge EP Group if they do not fulfil their obligations to postal workers and customers."

Venerable Potteries outfit Moorcroft ceases trading

The directors of Moorcroft Pottery have announced the firm has stopped trading after more than 100 years, which the GMB Union says means the loss of 57 jobs.

In a post on social media on Wednesday, bosses at the Stoke-on-Trent firm, based in Burslem, said they had told insolvency business Moore Recovery to help with voluntarily liquidating the company.

They said Moore would contact creditors in due course but did not give an explanation for the firm's closure. However, industry commentators have blamed an increase in energy costs.

Moorcroft had warned in March of possible redundancies and at the time cited rising costs and falling sales.

The news of Moorcroft's collapse is the latest blow to the pottery industry in Stoke-on-Trent, a city affectionately known as The Potteries.

The city is recognised for its global influence with pottery – having been granted a World Craft City Status just last year.

Its official tourist website proudly states: "We are the World Capital of Ceramics."

However, 2025 has proved to be a disastrous year for the city's pottery industry.

In February, Royal Stafford, also based in Burslem, called in administrators.

The firm's collapse followed the closure of Dudson in 2019, Wade in Longton two years ago and Johnsons Tiles in 2024.

Moorcroft blame spiralling energy costs and cheap imports for their demise

In March, Moorcroft warned of the threat of redundancies, stating their energy costs had gone up almost £250,000 over the past two years.

Rob Fello, the chief executive of Ceramics UK, which is based in the city, called for the government to step in and support the sector.

"Successive governments have just hammered the UK ceramics industry with things like carbon taxes and a whole raft of other taxes that these cheap imports just don't have to worry about," he said.

Chris Hoofe, GMB organiser, also urged the government to act, adding high energy costs were "crippling" the sector.

"The closure of Moorcroft is devastating news for workers and their families, but unfortunately it's not a surprise," he said.

103-year-old influencer goes viral

Even at 103 years old and living in a care home, Joan Partridge still makes sure to apply her make-up every day.

But she never expected a video of her putting on her rouge to be viewed by nearly 200,000 people - leading to a new role as an influencer with a cosmetics company.

That is exactly what happened after Millcroft Care Home in Redditch, Worcestershire, shared a clip of Joan's routine on social media.

"I didn't think I would have gained so much attention," she said. "I was shocked and overwhelmed."

Millcroft's manager, Lyndsay Sard, said it came about after the video was posted to the home's TikTok page earlier this month, inspired by the platform's make-up tutorial videos.

"The make-up that she was using, somebody had tagged the company and said, look, she's using your make-up," explained Ms Sard. "And the company then got in touch with us, which was really nice, to say how lovely it was to see Joan doing something like that."

"And they wanted to send the make-up directly to Joan."

As well as hundreds of thousands of views, the video has attracted several hundred comments from viewers, many of them asking Joan to post more tutorials.

"They're all beautiful, beautiful comments, from young girls and older ladies, all saying how beautiful you are and how much they love your video," Ms Sard told Joan, as she sat looking at a box of products sent to her by Collection Cosmetics. "And they'd like to see more."

"Oh no, no, I'm too old to go to work," Joan replied.

But she is joking - the care home said Joan was embracing her new role as an influencer, and was already planning more videos.

"Can anyone scarcely believe it?" asked Joan's granddaughter, Nicola, who arrived for a visit as Joan was going through the make-up she had been sent.

"When nan came to Millcroft we thought we'd have a relaxing time. But, no, my nan decides to go viral on TikTok."

"And I can't stop shouting about it cos I'm so proud of her. She's amazing."

"But we always expect the unexpected with my nan."

"Beauty to me means natural all over," said Joan of her new-found fame. "It's nice to feel good about yourself, no matter how old you are."

"You can't go without your rouge."

Lyndsay Sard, Millcroft's manager, has been supporting Joan in her new role

Surrey woman now world's oldest person

A woman from the UK has become the oldest person in the world, at the age of 115 and 252 days.

Ethel Caterham (right), who lives at a care home in Lightwater, Surrey, reached the milestone following the death of Brazilian nun Sister Inah Canabarro Lucas, aged 116 on Wednesday.

Ms Caterham was born on 21 August 1909 and is the last surviving subject of Edward VII.

Celebrating her 115th birthday in August 2024, she said she "didn't know why there was all the fuss".

She said the secret to her longevity was "never arguing with anyone, I listen and I do what I like".

The new record has been confirmed by Guinness World Records and LongeviQuest, a database of the world's oldest people.

'Remarkable milestone'

On her 115th birthday, Ms Caterham received a letter from the King congratulating her on a "truly remarkable milestone".

The King conveyed his "warmest good wishes" and "hoped that Ethel enjoys her incredibly special day".

The letter stated that His Majesty was "heartened to learn about Ethel's fascinating personal history".

Ms Caterham was born in Shipton Bellinger, in Hampshire, and was raised in nearby Tidworth in Wiltshire.

She was the second youngest of eight children.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website http://www.qualityloan.com, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-24-1000624-NJ. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 619-645-7711, or visit this internet website http://www.qualityloan.com, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-24-1000624-NJ to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE OWNER-OCCUPANT: Any prospective owner-occupant as defined in Section 2924m of the California Civil Code who is the last and highest bidder at the trustee's sale shall provide the required affidavit or declaration of eligibility to the auctioneer at the trustee's sale or shall have it delivered to QUALITY LOAN SERVICE CORPORATION by 5 p.m. on the next business day following the trustee's sale at the address set forth in the below signature block. NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE POST-SALE OVER BIDDERS: For post-sale information in accordance with Section 2924m(e) of the California Civil Code, use file number CA-24-1000624-NJ and call (866) 645-7711 or login to: <http://www.qualityloan.com>. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the sale is set aside for any reason, including if the Trustee is unable to convey title, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the monies paid to the Trustee. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call, (800) 758-8052 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website, www.xome.com, for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case, T.S.# 24-07792CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (866) 932-0360, or visit this internet website www.affiniadefault.com, using the file number assigned to this case 24-07792CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. 3 File No.: 24-07792CA If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. Mike Peters of The Alarm dead at 66

Mike Peters, front man of Welsh rockers The Alarm and a long-standing cancer campaigner and fundraiser, has died aged 66.

His band was formed in 1981 in Rhyl, Denbighshire, out of the punk era and had a top 20 hit, Sixty Eight Guns, two years later.

It typified an anthemic style of song but their unpretentious and down-to-earth approach earned loyal followings on both sides of the Atlantic.

Peters lived with blood cancer for 30 years, following his diagnosis of lymphoma in 1995, and later having chronic lymphocytic leukaemia twice.

He was born in Prestatyn, Denbighshire, and lived in Dyserth with his wife of 39 years, Jules - who had fought her own cancer battle -

MIKE PETERS: "Everything was an inspiration for him to express his feelings through music" and their sons Dylan, 20 and Evan, 18.

He was awarded the MBE in 2019 for his services to cancer care.

Peters - who had worked in the computer department for Kwik Save supermarket - had started the band The Toilets in Rhyl in 1977, after seeing the Sex Pistols play in Chester.

After various changes of line-up, notably the introduction of guitarist Dave Sharp, and changes of name, The Alarm played their first gig in Prestatyn in 1981.

They would go on to sell an estimated five million records and also become the first Welsh musicians since Tom Jones and Bonnie Tyler to crack America.

Coleen bests Rebekah yet again

Coleen Rooney has defeated an appeal brought by Rebekah Vardy over their Wagatha Christie libel battle costs.

Mrs Rooney was unsuccessfully sued in 2022, with the two still disputing how much Mrs Vardy should pay.

Jamie Carpenter KC, for Mrs Vardy, told the court that while Mrs Rooney defeated a previous appeal claiming misconduct by her lawyers, the court had not accepted two of her submissions and Mrs

Vardy had incurred extra costs over arguments.

But Mr Justice Cavanagh rejected this, saying: "Mrs Rooney was entirely successful at the appeal hearing."

She wants her full £85,000 appeal costs.

Why you need dental insurance in retirement.

Medicare doesn't pay for dental care.¹

As good as Medicare is, it was never meant to cover everything. If you want protection, you need to purchase individual insurance.

Early detection can prevent small problems from becoming expensive ones.

The best way to avoid large dental bills is preventive care. Experts recommend checkups twice a year.

Previous dental work can wear out.

Your odds of having a dental problem only go up as you age.²

Treatment is expensive — especially the services people over 50 often need.

Unexpected bills, like $190 for a filling, or $1,213 for a crown³ can be a real burden, especially if you're on a fixed income.

When you're comparing plans ...

- Look for coverage that helps pay for major services.
- Look for coverage with no deductibles.
- Shop for coverage with no annual maximum on cash benefits.

Simply put — without dental insurance, there may be an important gap in your healthcare coverage.

slot with U2 on their 1983 US tour, The Alarm gained a transatlantic following - not an inconsiderable achievement.

Their debut album Declaration was released in 1984. As well as Sixty Eight Guns, it also included another favourite, Blaze of Glory.

The band had honed their live performances by extensive touring, and were also reliable "go-to" support choice for big names - which included Bob Dylan, Queen and U2 again - including an appreciative crowd at Cardiff's National Stadium in 1987.

Despite their travels, The Alarm still had strong bonds with their homeland and Peters was able to live quietly in north Wales.

The band also released a Welsh-language version of their 1989 album Change, called Newid.

Peters announced from the stage in London that he was quitting The Alarm in 1991 but continued to work with The Poets Of Justice, the lineup including his wife Jules.

In 1999, Peters

worked with The Cult guitarist Billy Duffy forming a band called Coloursound.

Duffy said he felt the Welshman "inspired millions of people" during his career.

"(Music) was his lifeblood. Everything was an inspiration for him to express his feelings through music," he added.

He reformed The Alarm in 2000 and also worked as the singer for Big Country for a couple of years from 2011.

The Alarm has sold more than five million albums and had 16 UK Top 50 singles.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (855) 976-3916 or visit this internet website www.auction.com, using the 24-69702. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (855) 976-3916, or visit this internet website tracker.auction.com/sb1079, using the 24-69702 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call, (800) 758-8052 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website, www.xome.com, for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case, T.S.# 24-08435CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (866) 932-0360, or visit this internet website www.affinidefault.com, using the file number assigned to this case 24-08435CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. 3 File No.:24-08435CA If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. Reds canter to their 20th top flight title

■ Joy unconfined at Anfield as Spurs surrender weekly after taking early lead

Liverpool were crowned Premier League champions in style - and drew level with Manchester United on 20 titles - as Tottenham Hotspur were demolished 5-1 on a day of wild celebrations and emotion at Anfield.

Arne Slot's side needed only a point to complete the formalities of their coronation, although Spurs briefly threatened a plot twist when former Liverpool striker Dominic Solanke headed them into an early lead.

The shock jolted Liverpool into action, the title was signed and sealed with three goals before the break that sent their expectant fans into ecstasy at the high point of Slot's spectacular first season in succession to

SELFIE MOMENT: Mo Salah celebrates scoring Liverpool's fourth goal on Sunday

Jurgen Klopp.

Luis Diaz turned in Dominik Szoboszlai's pass from close range to put Liverpool level after 16 minutes, the goal given after the Hungarian was initially adjudged to be offside.

Any lingering doubts and anxiety were banished eight minutes later when Alexis Mac Allister fired spectacularly past Spurs keeper Guglielmo Vicario from the edge of the area.

And Anfield's title party really started when Cody Gakpo was allowed time and space inside the area to turn and score Liverpool's third after 34 minutes.

Liverpool laid siege to the Spurs goal in front of the Kop in the second half, Mohamed Salah cutting inside to get on the scoresheet, before accepting a phone to take a memorable selfie after 63 minutes.

As Spurs collapsed, Destiny Udogie turned into his own net under pressure from Salah six minutes later.

The win allowed triumphant Liverpool to celebrate a title win in front of their own fans for the first time since 1990, as they last lifted the trophy behind closed doors at Anfield in 2020 during the Covid pandemic.

It was almost 35 years to the day since Liverpool and their fans sampled the sense of triumph that comes with clinching a title in front of their own supporters, when Queen's Park Rangers were beaten 2-1 on 28 April 1990.

Liverpool's triumph came during the pandemic, so this was a celebration three decades in the making for many fans - and they celebrated in a style befitting the long wait.

Anfield was surrounded by fans hours before kick-off, the team coach emerging from plumes of red smoke on this landmark day.

And Liverpool delivered brilliantly, never settling for the one point they required, sweeping Spurs away in a manner that illustrated the remarkable work done by head coach Arne Slot in his first season.

In what many regarded as the impossible job, the calm and measured Slot has overseen the smoothest of transitions as Liverpool have claimed the title at a canter.

United sweep Athletic aside

■ Europa League: Amorim's men have one foot in the final after dominant performance in Spain

Manchester United took a huge step towards reaching the Europa League final as a stunning spell in the first half against 10-man Athletic Bilbao ensured they take a 3-0 advantage into the semi-final second leg at Old Trafford.

Playing at a vociferous San Mames Stadium, the visitors could have been 2-0 down after Inaki Williams sent a header from a good position over, before Victor Lindelof blocked Alex Berenguer's shot on the line.

But the game turned dramatically in United's favour in the 30th minute when Harry Maguire produced some good skill on the right before his cross was flicked on for Casemiro to head in.

It got even better for the visitors seven minutes later when, after a review by the video assistant referee, they were awarded a penalty for a foul on Rasmus Hojlund by Dani Vivian, who was subsequently sent off.

Bruno Fernandes then closed out the loud boos from the home fans to coolly place the spot kick into the back of the net.

And a rampant United went 3-0 up just before the break when Manuel Ugarte played a clever

Spurs find their form at last

■ But late Bodo goal leaves door ajar for Norwegians

Tottenham took a big step towards the Europa League final with a deserved 3-1 first-leg win over Norwegian side Bodo/Glimt - but a late goal just leaves a little window of doubt.

Thursday's encounter was one of Spurs' best performances of a wretched season domestically and leaves them two games away from a first trophy since 2008.

Ange Postecoglou's side took only 38 seconds to open the scoring as Brennan Johnson headed in from Richarlison's nod down.

And James Maddison doubled the lead when he brilliantly took down Pedro Porro's long ball before squeezing the ball into the bottom corner.

Dominic Solanke rolled in a nonchalant penalty for 3-0 after Cristian Romero was fouled.

Bodo/Glimt have made headlines in recent times for an intense style of football that has led to impressive results - but they were outplayed until Ulrik Saltnes' effort flew into the top corner via a deflection off Rodrigo Bentancur.

That was their only

Dominic Solanke scored from the spot for Spurs shot on target.

The other concern for Spurs was the loss of goalscorers Maddison and Solanke to injury in the second half.

The second leg in the Arctic Circle is no formality, with Glimt beating Porto, Besiktas, Olympiakos and Lazio at home this season.

Their win rate at home in the Europa League since 2022-23 is 70%, compared to 9% on the road.

An all-English final in Bilbao could be on the cards with Manchester United winning their tie 3-0 at Athletic Club.

Domestically Tottenham are facing their worst season since 1976-

77, sitting in 16th place on little over a point per game. There is a good chance Australian Postecoglou will lose his job whatever happens in Europe now, such has been their debacle at home, but finishing on a trophy would be some way to go.

It is 17 years since Tottenham won the League Cup, their last bit of silverware. Mauricio Pochettino and serial winners Jose Mourinho and Antonio Conte were unable to bring trophies to Spurs.

On top of ending that trophy drought, it would give Spurs a Champions League spot - despite sitting 23 points off those places in the league.

flick to send Fernandes through and the captain made no mistake.

Ruben Amorim's side could have had more in the second half with Casemiro - impressive throughout - clipping the outside of the post with a header from a corner.

A fourth would have firmly put the tie beyond Bilbao and although it was not to be, a three-goal deficit is still likely to be too much for the Spanish side to overcome when they head to Old Trafford next Thursday.

With Tottenham beating Bodo/Glimt 3-1 in their semi-final first leg, an all-English Europa League final is looking likely.
